 IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE WISH OF EMPEROR

 Berlin Dispatches State the Centrists Support
Peace

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Copenhagen, July 14.—According to Berlin newspapers the crown prince in interviews Thursday with Reichstag party leaders including Herr David and other Socialists interested himself chiefly in obtaining from the deputies their views on the person and policy of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor. He quizzed each deputy privately, encouraging all of them to express freely their views on Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg. Individual audiences lasted more than half an hour each. The crown prince is reported to have said he was doing this in accordance with the wish of Emperor William, who had suggested that he form his own opinions of the chancellor's policy through interviews with party leaders.

The morning papers appear to have had no intimation of the impending strike of Reichstag deputies and the emperor's summons to Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff. They devote their columns to a discussion of the Prussian franchise reforms and the paradox that a crisis, originating in the demand for liberal reforms and the proclamation of a moderate peace program should have made possible the supplanting of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, by the chancellor candidate, Prince von Buelow, with whom von Buelow by comparison is almost a radical and who is an avowed believer in annexationist peace.

The Conservatives and members of the Clerical Central party in the diet have started playing for delay and have abandoned their previous demands for a session of the diet before autumn. They profess to believe that it is impossible for the government to submit the bill before October.

The Reichstag has gone on strike and members have decided to suspend the labors of both the full House and main committee until the political situation is cleared. This leaves the war credits bill in abeyance.

Emperor William has summoned Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff, and Gen- (Continued on Page 9, Col. 5.)

400 STEEL SHIPS ARE TO BE BUILT NEXT 18 MONTHS

Washington, July 14.—Announcement was made last night by Major General George W. Goethals, manager of the Shipping Board's Emergency Fleet Corporation, that on Monday he will offer contracts for construction of two government ship-building plants to produce 400 steel merchant ships. The ships are to be built in 18 months.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Cleveland, July 14.—Five men were held by police today following street fighting last night in which Harry Schools, private in Company C, Ninth Ohio Battalion, was stabbed to death and two other men seriously injured.

LOCAL BOARD RECEIVES REGULATIONS GOVERNING DRAFT AND EXEMPTIONS

The members of the local exemption board, Messrs. A. A. Stasel, Walter Symons, Wm. M. Morgan and Dr. W. H. Knauss, have received instructions and information for persons registered for the selective draft army, compiled by the war department and which they have given out from the registration headquarters. It states that in every county in the United States and for every city over 30,000 there are one or more local exemption boards. Each of such boards is in charge of the registration cards of persons registered in the area over which the board has jurisdiction, and has jurisdiction for exemption, except those based on industrial grounds. Find out what board has your card and where the office of the board is.

In every Federal judicial district there are one or more district boards having appellate jurisdiction over a number of local boards and having original jurisdiction of claims for exemption on industrial grounds. If you intend to make a claim on industrial grounds, including agriculture, learn what district board to apply to.

Every board has numbered the cards in its jurisdiction with red ink in a series running from 1 to

RUMORED THAT EMPEROR HAS QUIT THRONE

Germany's serious internal crisis overshadowed the pending military operations in the news of the day.

The reports from Berlin show that the reichstag has gone on strike against the crown and the military party, apparently in the interest of a parliamentary system of government.

There is even a rumor, although entirely unconfirmed and little credited, that Emperor William has abdicated in favor of his sixth and favorite son, Prince Joachim.

The peace clamor is growing both in Germany and Austria-Hungary. Part of the trouble between the reichstag and the governing class is over the government's persistent declaration to state Germany's peace terms on the basis of "non-annexation" demanded by what now comprises a majority block in the reichstag.

The war credit bill is being held up by this majority until the political crisis is settled. But more serious yet is the decision of the members not even to meet meanwhile for discussion in regular session or in committee. Apparently the crown prince is waging a fight for control on behalf of the militaristic interests.

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg is under fire from the crown prince and his supporters, the chancellor seemingly being too liberally inclined to suit the heir to the throne.

On the military side of the situation continues to bear a most on- (Continued on Page 9, Col. 3.)

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, N. M., July 14.—Closely guarded by United States cavalry troops from Douglas, Ariz., the special freight train carrying the deported strikers and others from Hermans, N. M., arrived here at 7:45 o'clock this morning and the occupants were delivered to Colonel H. G. Sickles, camp commander here by Colonel W. A. Holbrook. The refugees will remain in the freight cars until late today when they will be transferred to a detention camp being prepared for them by United States cavalrymen.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hermans, N. M., July 14.—Col. James J. Hornbrook, U. S. A., with a command of 192 officers and men, arrived here this morning on a special train from Douglas, Arizona, to take the 1,200 Bisbee exiles to Columbus, N. M. Work of loading the men onto the trains was begun immediately.

The soldiers were assisted by Sheriff Simpson of Luna county, N. M., and his deputies. The embarkation of the exiles for Columbus was orderly.

Hermans, N. M., July 14.—Removal of the 1,200 deported striking Bisbee copper miners and their sympathizers from their cattle car and box car habitations at this desert hamlet to Columbus where they will be cared for by the military authorities pending decision as to their final disposition was to take place today upon the arrival of Colonel Jas. J. Hornbrook, U. S. A., ordered here from Douglas by Brigadier General George Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district.

General Bell stated that the men would not be prisoners but would be given shelter in the stockade built for Mexican refugees during the border raids and would be supplied with rations by the military authorities. The removal of the men to Columbus is a temporary expedient, it was said, to prevent suffering.

The men, who were left on a side track here at midnight Thursday night, passed last night in their cars. Their lot was better though than it had been early in the day, for a carload of provisions arrived from El Paso and many of the men received their first meal in more than 24 hours.

Sheriff Simpson of Luna county, who came here with fifty deputies from Deming, remained with five of his men after a meeting at which he and District Attorney S. Vaughn addressed the men and assured them that they would be protected and would not be molested as long as they preserved the peace. The exiles cheered the sheriff and Mr. Vaughn lustily and assured them they were law abiding citizens. The (Continued on Page 9, Col. 2.)

NO OPPOSITION BY SHIPPING BOARD TO GOETHALS' PROGRAM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 14.—The situation with respect to the long-drawn-out dispute between the major General Goethals, manager of the shipping board's emergency fleet corporation, and William Denman, chairman of the board, as to the policy to be followed in constructing the government's big merchant fleet, was clarified today with General Goethals' announcement of a comprehensive building program.

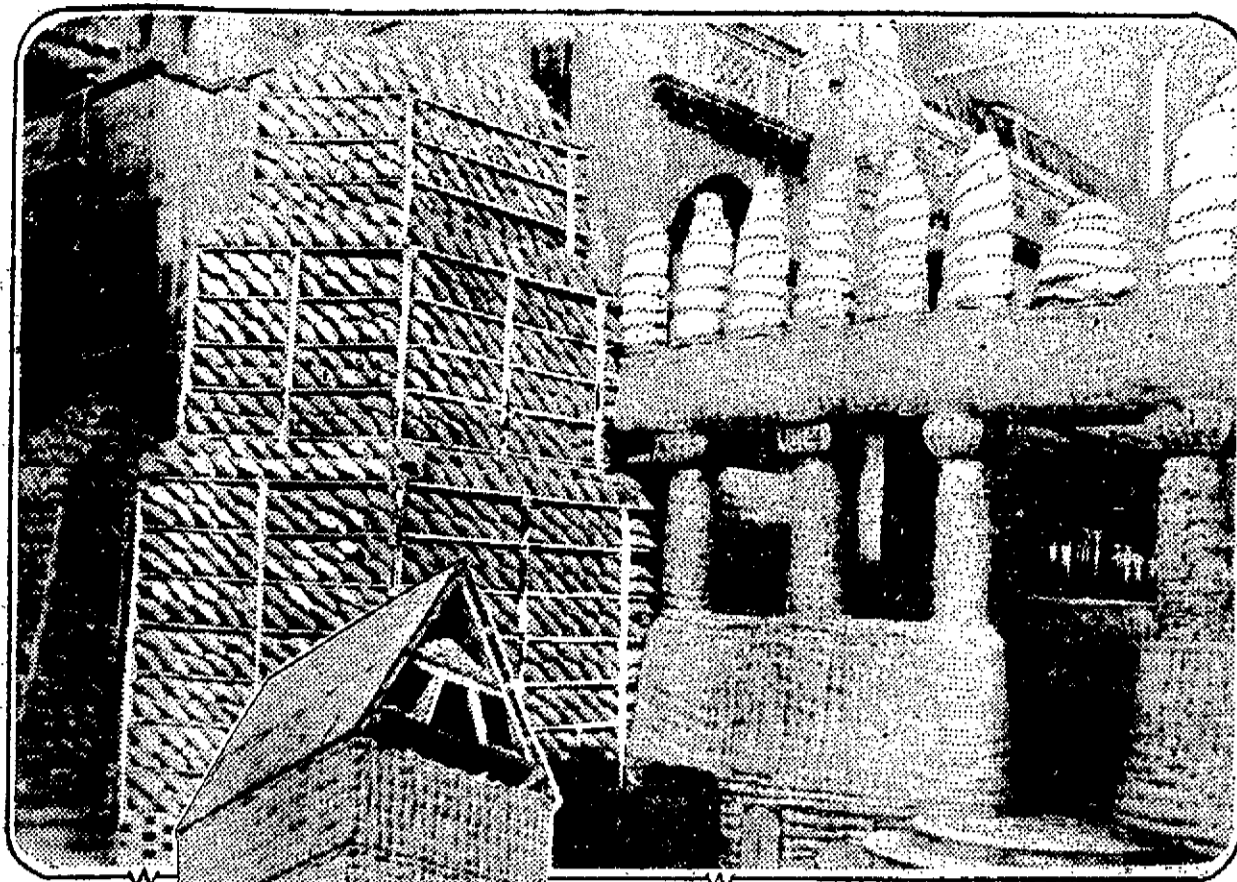

The plan, as outlined in a communication by General Goethals to Chairman Denman, calls for the immediate construction of two government ship building plants to produce 400 fabricated steel ships of 2,500-3,000 tonnage; the commandeering of 1,500,000 tons of shipping now under construction for private account in American yards, and for another big appropriation by congress for building ships.

Chairman Denman indicated today that there would be no opposition by the shipping board to General Goethals' program.

WERE WOUNDED IN STRIKE DISORDERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Rio Janeiro, July 14.—Several persons were wounded in strike disorders at Sao Paulo today during which the strikers and police fired on each other. According to reports here the strike movement is spreading and it is said that the anarchists, who entered Brazil recently from Argentina, are behind the movement.

ITALY GUARDS HER ARCHITECTURAL AND ART TREASURES

Showing (above) the sanctuary and pulpit of St. Marks at Venice and (below) the Coliana monument at Venice, protected with padding and sandbags against damage from bombs.

Italy is determined that her architecture and art shall not be mutilated and destroyed as have those of France. Heavily padded quilting and redoubts of sandbags have been used to protect her most priceless treasures against the ravages of aerial bombs. Almost all the art treasures of importance in Italy are being safeguarded in this way and they present a rather astonishing appearance to the traveler whose Baedeker will help him very little at present.

BELIEVE DRAWING WILL START SOME TIME NEXT WEEK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 14.—With 947 of the 4,559 exemption districts still unheard from today an accurate prediction as to the date of the great drawing under the army selective conscription law still was impossible. Most of the officials who are closely watching the situation believed, however, that all would be ready in time for the drawing next week.

More than 400 districts filed their reports of organization yesterday and last night. The bulk of those missing districts are in large cities and will report about the same time. It has been estimated that New York City reports will be complete by Wednesday or Thursday.

Meanwhile nominations for the district appeal boards still awaited action by President Wilson. The full list of men recommended for his selection has been submitted by Brigadier General Crowder, provost marshal general. There will be no need to delay the drawing for these nominations as the appeal boards will have no functions to perform until the actual examination of men by the district boards has commenced.

Newspapers in the big population centers of the country are beginning to realize more clearly every day the magnitude of the task before them in announcing the order for appearance of each regiment. It seems likely now that a majority of the papers will be compelled to print on the first day only the names of the men who are likely to be called to make up the 687,000 to be drafted for military service. In each state the number that will mean from each district in the state is now being determined by the governor.

In any state the allotment of quota by districts may range widely. One district may be called upon for several hundred men and another for only two or three, due to credits for volunteers, distribution of registrants or other factors which the governors are considering in making allotment. The result will be that for one district the papers may be able to publish at once names of the men who will be first to appear and also additional names in order of liability to over probable exemptions.

Another factor in the drawing that may prove puzzling, is the fact that the rotation numbers will not be the same in every district. For instance: If the largest district has 7,000 men registered and the smallest 187 and the others range between 7,000 numbers would have to be drawn. The first serial number might be 4,775. That would mean nothing to any district with less than 4,775 registrants.

The second number drawn might be 25. Then in all small districts, number 25 would be first up, but in districts having 4,775 or more registrants, number 25 would come up second.

PRES. WILSON SENDS WARRANT FOR COCHI.

New York, July 14.—A personal warrant from President Wilson for the arrest of Alfredo Cocchi in Italy for the murder here of Ruth Cruger was received by registered mail today by Edward Swann, district attorney.

BELIEVE TROUBLE WILL BE SETTLED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hamilton, O., July 14.—Hamilton's strike situation has developed itself into a series of conferences which it is hoped will result in the adjudication of the difficulties. As a result of these conferences the O-C-operative Trades and Labor Council has called off the mass meeting to have been held tonight and gave warning that no union men are to attend any public meeting of any kind no matter by whom called.

MT. VERNON WOMAN WAS NOT DETAINED AS SPY

Columbus, July 14.—Miss Margaret I. Hess of Mt. Vernon, O., a missionary in Korea, is safe and is not nor has not been detained as a spy, according to a message to Governor Cox's office today through Washington from Ransford S. Miller, consul general at Seoul. He said she had been stopped many times and required to identify herself by Japanese agents but never had experienced any trouble. However, the consul general said, he had warned her not to make trips alone, as she had been doing, and not to use a camera which she had always carried with her.

SELECTING OF MEN FOR 2ND OFFICERS CAMP BEGUN TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, July 14.—First steps in the selection of candidates for the second reserve officers' training camp at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., are expected to be taken today.

Major George L. Converse, examining officer, is summoning applicants from the central district for personal interviews and medical examinations. Beginning Thursday the mayor and four aides will tour the southern district defined by Wellington, Piqua, Chillicothe and Cincinnati.

Headquarters will be established in centrally located cities in each district and applicants will be summoned to appear before examining officers from the surrounding territory. The examining parties will be back in Columbus by August 4, when selections will be made and sent notified.

Ohio's quota is 803 men but applications are expected to run as high as 2,500, it is said.

FIRING ON Peking LASTED 9 HOURS.

London, July 14.—A dispatch to the Times from Peking dated Thursday says that firing on the capital ceased after a nine hour bombardment.

A Tien Tsin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company filed on Thursday, says that "most regrettable fighting" occurred in Peking. Communication between the city and the outer world, except by foreign military means, has been suspended temporarily. The last message to reach Tien Tsin indicated hard fighting was proceeding, to the advantage of the republicans.

VICTORY MEANS THE RESTORATION OF THE CHINESE REPUBLIC

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 14.—The occupation of Peking by the republican forces, following the surrender at Fung Tai Thursday of the monarchist army of 10,000 men, indicate the complete restoration of the republic, the Chinese legation here declared today.

Prior to the battle of Fung Tai, the Manchus were urged to lay down their arms but General Chang Hsun refused. The engagement, starting early Thursday morning, resulted in a decisive victory for the republican troops, dispatches to the legation announce.

Order in the capital was restored with few casualties. The advisers said that two foreign civilians and four foreign soldiers who ventured to the firing line, were slightly wounded.

Chang Hsun, who led the revolt of the imperialists, has taken refuge in the Dutch legation in order to obtain safe conduct out of the country. Premier Tuan Chi Jui will establish republican headquarters in Peking immediately, it was stated.

TO BE RECEIVED BY THE EMPEROR.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, July 14.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen says it is officially reported from Berlin that Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff, and General Ludendorff, who have been summoned to Berlin by Emperor William, arrived in the capital yesterday morning. The Tageblatt learns they had a long conference with the crown prince and later were received by the emperor.

SOLDIER BOYS LEAVE AMID CHEERS AND TEARS TO ENTER ARMY SERVICE

Amid the cheers and tears of relatives and friends and as the Buckeye band played "Hail, Hail, the Ganges All Here," the special train of four coaches and baggage car, carrying away the recently-recruited members of the new divisional motor supply company, numbering about 55 from Newark, Utica and Coshocton, this morning.

They boarded the special train which arrived in Newark from Cambridge, bearing the Cambridge and Zanesville recruits, about 8:30 o'clock. There were hundreds of bright and happy faces, in striking contrast to the parents, relatives and sweethearts, who thronged the platforms saying, "Goodbye."

The recruiting for the new divisional motor train which did not exist 10 days ago, has established a precedent in recruiting. The O. N. G. was without a supply train two weeks ago, but today all the material for one is being gathered together in Columbus.

CALL TO COLORS IS ANSWERED BY OHIO SOLDIERS

 Greatest Mobilization In the History of State of Ohio

 MORE THAN 20,000 MEN
SOON TO BE UNDER ARMS

 Entire State Guard Will Be Sent to Training Camp at Montgomery, Ala.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, July 14.—All Ohio National Guard units not already called to the colors were ordered to mobilize at their local armories at noon tomorrow in orders flashed over the state this afternoon by Adjutant General Wood. Designation of the time and place of mobilization was made in official orders received this afternoon from Major General Thomas H. Barry of Chicago, commander of the Central Department of the United States army.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., July 14.—Answering President Wilson's call-to-the-colors, Ohio National Guard today began the greatest mobilization in the history of the state. For the second time within little more than a year, Ohio's volunteer army was saying goodbye to relatives and sweethearts; was laying aside the pursuits of commerce to take up the rifle and the sword.

Some 13 months ago the state had 8000 men assembled as her part of the army that was sent to the Mexican border. Today the first units of an army three times that big were falling into line. By tomorrow night more than 20,000 Ohio men will be under arms.

Within three weeks guard officers believe that the entire guard will have been moved from the local armories to the Ohio training camp at Montgomery, Ala. And before another six months has passed, officers believe Ohio's biggest contribution to the world's cause of democracy will be doing their bit "somewhere in France."

Men in the new supply and ammunition trains and the military police corps were mustered into service (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

CREDIT GIVEN FOR ENLISTMENTS BY THE GOVERNMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 14.—An important preliminary step towards the organization of America's new national army was taken with the publication today of President Wilson's order drafting 687,000 men into military service under the selective conscription law. The order was issued by the war department together with an official allotment of the number of men to be required from each state and territory.

Distribution by the governors of the state quotas among the local exemption districts, and the great lottery, to establish the order in which registrants are to be called into the service, are the only steps that remain to be carried out.

The men summoned will be used to bring the regular army and national guard to war strength and to form the first half-million of the new army. The total of the three forces will be 1,267,955 men.

In computing the allotment required from each state, the government gave credit for the number of men in the national guard of the state and every recruit contributed to the regular army since April 1.

EXTRAORDINARY OBLIGATION RESTS UPON RED CROSS

Washington, July 14.—Henry P. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross War Council, authorizes the following statement:

Morning papers publish a report that the American Red Cross is to use in Italy $10,000,000 out of the $100,000,000 and more recently subscribed. The report is without foundation, and it is important that the policy of the Red Cross in handling these funds be clearly understood.

The Red Cross has appropriated $1,000,000 to provide immediate necessities in France, to be spent under the direction of the American Red Cross commission in France, headed by Major Grayson M. P. Murphy, a member of the war council. The Red Cross has also appropriated $200,000 to purchase medical supplies and instruments, whereby the Red Cross commission to Russia may take care of more urgent needs upon arrival in that country.

The sum of $200,000 has been appropriated to purchase materials to supply most urgent needs in Roumania. The sum of $100,000 has been appropriated for us in Armenia and $600,000 has been appropriated to purchase drugs to be sent to the Russian Red Cross.

Aside from the foregoing, no appropriations have been made by the war council for work in foreign countries. The need in all our allied countries is beyond computation, and use can be found for all funds which can possibly be obtained either now or in the future. That very fact imposes upon the Red Cross an extraordinary obligation, which it fully recognizes, to use the funds committed to it only after assuring itself not only that any proposed expenditure will do good but that it will accomplish the greatest good relative to other needs which are crying to be supplied.

The Red Cross has now at work in France a commission of experts and it has more recently sent to Russia a similar commission. The expenses of these commissions are borne privately and are not a charge on Red Cross funds. It is the purpose of the Red Cross to send similar commissions to Italy and Roumania, and also to appoint a commissioner to Great Britain. No appropriations for use in any country will be made until after investigation, and all except emergency appropriations will be made by the war council for specific purposes and in specified amounts.

It is also the policy of the war council to withhold any very large expenditures abroad until it is made certain that every necessary provision has been made to take care of our own soldiers and sailors.

Appropriations as authorized will as far as feasible be made public immediately, and frequent statements will summarize the expenditures of the past, and set forth the condition of Red Cross finances.

LOCAL BOARD RECEIVES REGULATIONS GOVERNING DRAFT AND EXEMPTIONS

tice to charge you with the duty of presenting yourself. The law, therefore, makes it your duty to inform yourself when you are called. The mailing is for your convenience, but if the letter never reaches you, you cannot make that an excuse. Watch the lists at the office of your board and see when you are called for examination.

You must report for physical examination on the day named in your call.

(a) If you are found physically disqualified the board will give you a certificate which will explain to you what your further duties are.

(b) If you are found physically qualified and file a claim for exemption within seven days after your call you will be given 10 days after filing your claim of exemption to file proof in support of your claim of exemption.

(c) If you are found physically qualified and file no claim for exemption, or if you do not appear for the physical examination, your name will be posted to the district board as one who was called for military service and was not exempted or discharged. On the eighth day after call, or within two days thereafter copies of the list of persons so posted to the district boards will be given to the press with a request for publication, will be posted in a place at the office of the local board accessible to the public view, and notice will be mailed to you at the address on your registration card.

Therefore watch the notices posted in the office of the board about 10 days after the day you were called and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

Seven days to file claims of exemption or discharge (except for industrial or agricultural reasons):

(a). No claim of discharge on account of the industry in which you are engaged can be decided by a local board.

(b). Whether you file a claim of exemption or not, you must present yourself for physical examination on the day named in the notice.

From the day notice that you are called is mailed and posted you have seven days in which you may file a claim of exemption or discharge. The form for filing this claim is simple. If you wish to file such a claim:

(a). Go to the board and get Form 110 for exemption or Form 121 for discharge. If the board has not the printed forms, ask to consult the form pamphlet and copy the form shown there.

(b). Fill out the proper form and file it with the board.

(c). Do this within seven days of the posting and mailing of notice to you to present yourself.

The following are the only grounds for exemption:

1. That you are an officer, legislative, executive or judicial of the United States, a state or territory, or the District of Columbia.

2. That you are a regular or ordained minister of religion.

3. That you were on May 18, 1917, a student preparing for the ministry in any recognized theological or divinity school.

4. That you are in the military or naval reserve services of the United States.

5. That you are a subject of Germany, whether you have taken out papers or not.

6. That you are a resident alien who has not taken out first papers.

In addition to claims for exemption claims for discharge may be made on any of the following grounds, which are the only grounds for discharge by a local board.

1. That you are a county or municipal officer.

2. That you are a custom house clerk.

3. That you are employed by the United States in the transmission of mails.

4. That you are an artificer or workman employed in the armory, arsenal or navy yard of the United States.

5. That you are employed in the service of the United States (under certain conditions).

6. That you are a licensed pilot, regularly employed in the pursuit of your vocation.

7. That you are a marine actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States.

8. That you are a married man with a wife and child dependent upon you for support.

9. That you have a widowed mother dependent upon you for support.

10. That you have aged or infirm parents dependent upon your labor for support.

11. That you are the father of a motherless child under 10 dependent upon your labor for support.

12. That you are a brother of an orphanless child or brother under 16 dependent upon your labor for support.

13. That you are a member of any well-organized religious sect or organization organized and existing May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbade its members to participate in war in any form and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein in accordance with the creed or principles of said religious organization.

These are the only grounds for exemption or discharge by a local board.

Another person can file a claim in your behalf, but must use different forms in filing the claim.

Your claim of exemption or discharge must be filed within seven days of the day upon which notice to you that you were called was posted and mailed. But after you have filed your claim for exemption or discharge you have ten days within which to file proof.

The method of proving claims is very simple, but it is rather exact. If you follow the rules given below you will have done what is required of you.

First: Go to the local board and consult the regulations to find out the form number of the affidavits that you must submit for your particular claim.

Second: Ask the board for the blank affidavit that is necessary in presenting your proof. If the board has not the forms, ask to consult the pamphlet or forms.

Third: Have the affidavits properly accomplished and return them to the board within the time limit assigned you—ten days from the filing of your claim.

Remember:

(a) You must submit your proof in the prescribed form and the board has no authority to exempt or discharge you unless you submit all the affidavits required by regulations.

(b) There will be no argument before the board and no proof other than the prescribed affidavits unless the board calls for other proof, which it will do only in a limited number of cases.

Every claim for discharge or exemption will be decided by the local board within three days after your affidavits have been filed.

If your claim is allowed a certificate of exemption or discharge will be issued to you.

Remember:

(a) This certificate may be recalled at any time.

(b) If it is temporary or conditional it becomes of no effect when the time or the conditions named are fulfilled.

(c) You have been drawn for military service and when the condition that has postponed your posting to the colors ceases you may be recalled at any time.

(d) Remember that your case may still be appealed to the district board by the government, and on this appeal your certificate may be withdrawn at once. When so withdrawn you stand precisely as though you had been selected for military service by the local board.

If your claim is disallowed by the local board your name will be certified and sent by the local board to the district board as one who has been called for military service and was not exempted or discharged.

In two days thereafter, if practicable, a list of those so certified to the district board will be given to the press with a request for publication, will be posted in the offices of the local board accessible to the public view and notice will be mailed to the address on your registration card.

Therefore, if you have filed a claim for exemption and proof in support thereof, watch the notices in the office of the local board, beginning about five days after you have filed your proof, to see what disposition was made of your case and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

Claims of appeal may be made by a person within 10 days after the day when notice has been posted and mailed that such person's name has been certified to the district board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

Therefore, if you desire to appeal:

1. Go to the local board and get or copy Form 153 or 154 for filing your claim of appeal.

2. Get or copy also Form 151 or 152 for notifying the district board of appeal.

3. File your claim of appeal (153 or 154) with the local board.

4. Send your notice of appeal (151 or 152) to the district board.

5. Do this within 10 days from the day when notice that your name was certified to the district board was posted and mailed.

Remember:

You can only appeal the final order of the board exempting or discharging you or refusing to exempt or discharge you. You cannot appeal other orders or action of the local board.

You have five days after the district board receives your notice that you have filed a claim of appeal in which to file additional evidence to that filed by you in the local board, but all such evidence must consist of affidavits.

The decision on your appeal must be made within five days of the closing of proof, and you will be notified by mail of the action of the board on your appeal.

Only the district board can receive claims of discharge on the ground that you are engaged in industry, including agriculture, found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment, the effective operation of the military forces, or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency.

Such claims must be filed with the district board on or before the fifth day after the mailing and posting of notice that you have been certified by the local board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

If you desire to file such a claim:

1. Get or copy at the local district board Form 161 or 161a.

2. Fill the form out properly.

3. File it with the district board within five days after the mailing and posting of notice that your name has been certified from the local board to the district board. (See Section 44, Regulations.)

Only affidavits can be used in filing proof before the district board of a claim for exemption on industrial grounds. All such affidavits must be filed within five days after the filing of the claim.

Within five days after the closing of proof in any industrial claim the district board must decide the claim.

If the decision of the district board is in favor of the claim the board will issue a certificate of discharge. If the decision is against the claim the district boards will so notify you.

Remember you must have been called for military service and that the certificate of the district is only conditional on your remaining in the kind of industrial service on account of which you were discharged. No such exemption shall continue when a cause therefor no longer exists and your certificate of discharge may be withdrawn or modified by the district board at any time that the circumstances require it.

Only decisions of district board on industrial claims for discharge can be appealed.

If you desire to appeal the decision of the district board to the President, you may do so within seven days of the date of mailing to you the decision of the district board. To perfect your appeal:

1. Get or copy from the district or local board Form 163.

2. Fill out the form and file it with the district board.

3. Do this within seven days after the mailing of notice to you of the decision of the district board in your case.

As soon as your case is finally disposed of, the Adjutant General of your state will notify you by mail that you have been selected for military service.

Your local boards will post a list of all persons selected for military service in a place at the office of the local boards accessible to public view. The local boards will also give lists of persons selected for military service to the press with requests for publication.

Notice that you have been selected for military service will not necessarily order you into service.

The notice to report for military service will come when the Government is ready to receive you.

EFFORT IS MADE TO CLOSE MOVIES HERE ON SUNDAY

An effort is being made to have Mayor Bigbee issue an order to close the moving picture shows on Sunday.

The proposal is causing no little discussion about town and the mayor is hearing from both those who favor and those who oppose the suggestion. The matter was discussed at a recent meeting of ministers and a committee of pastors called upon the mayor during the week urging him to take action.

The picture men declare that they can not continue in business if they are not permitted to show pictures on Sunday as they say they can not otherwise pay expenses.

It is said that some of the ministers are not in favor of the movement providing no vaudeville or other objectionable matter is presented and providing also that the pictures are clean and wholesome.

One man said he told the mayor today that to close the picture shows would drive the people to other forms of pleasure and would deprive the working people of their opportunity for harmless recreation.

HE WAS A SLACKER, EXCUSE GIVEN BY HIS SCRAPPY WIFE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Chicago, July 14.—The first of the slacker marriages here to make public appearance on the domestic junkie was recorded at a hospital today when Conrad Jeffers, 29 years of age, was brought in with his skull fractured by hammer blows and his throat cut.

"He married me two months ago to escape the draft," explained Mrs. Jeffers. "I found out that he was a slacker and we quarreled all the time. We had hours of it last night and finally, when he was asleep, I got a hammer and a razor and went after him."

Jeffers is in a critical condition.

FREE SHEEP BOOK WILL BE GIVEN TO APPLICANTS

The Bradley Knitting Company, of Delavan, Wisconsin, is organizing boys' sheep clubs in every State of the Union. Their object in doing this is to stimulate interest in sheep and wool, and thereby increase the production of these two staples. They have a plan whereby it is possible for boys in every State to secure a flock of bred ewes, which should be the basis of a great many farm flocks. They have, for free distribution, a sixteen-page booklet, edited by Mr. Anthony Gould, of the American Sheep Breeder, on the care of sheep. They will be glad to send it to any boy who is interested in sheep, or who desires to enter the contest for the sheep. Send a postcard to Bradley Knitting Co., Delavan, Wis.

BOYS, HOW ABOUT ENLISTING AS A BAKER FOR ARMY?

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, July 14.—Almost on the eve of the army draft, the war department today pointed out that the organization of 40 baking companies offers an opportunity for young men to volunteer, learn the baker's trade, and possibly get promotion. Each company will consist of 100 men, divided into 15 field units capable of supplying 4,000 pounds of bread a day. Commissions will be offered "to deserving men from the ranks," said a department announcement.

SEEKS RELEASE FROM ENLISTMENT

John Beckford was taken to the state penitentiary this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Frank Brown. Beckford was arrested on June 27 for shooting with intent to kill W. H. Hays of East Newark. The shooting occurred last night. Beckford, who lived at 32 1/2 Union street, was sworn in as a member of Company B, Fourth Ohio Infantry, June 1. Trouble is attributed, because of his enlistment, which was made under false statements, according to department officials. Beckford, when seen this morning, stated that he absolutely made no false statements at the time of his enlistment and he now seeks to be released from his enlistment.

Beckford will get an affidavit from the clerk of courts showing he is a free man and will appear tomorrow to have charges against him dropped and to be released from his enlistment.

True patriot appeals to a man's pocket as well as to his heart.

MR. MOSSER GIVEN FINE RECEPTION AT ALTOONA, PA.

George H. Mosser was a guest of the Chamber of Commerce at his old home in Altoona, Pa., Thursday, and spoke on "The Chamber of Commerce in War."

The Altoona Times says that a remarkable tribute was paid Mr. Mosser by members of the body, over 125 being present. He was introduced by the chairman as "Cyclone George."

Mr. Mosser in concluding his address which was printed at length in the Altoona papers made this reference to Newark's Red Cross campaign:

"In Newark, out of 200 men on the city committee nine-tenths were Chamber of Commerce workers. They were among the biggest men in town and the entire committee took charge of the city and Licking county, composed of 26 townships. The quota for town and county was $40,000, but the total amount subscribed amounted to $65,000 of which $21,000 was given by the city and $34,000 by the farmers and those who lived throughout the county. The Ohio state council of defense of which Governor Cox is chairman and the war council of the Red Cross at Washington declared that the agricultural district about Newark had made one of the best responses in the United States."

"Newark at present is short of labor and could easily employ 2,500 additional workers immediately. Already women are being placed in the workshops and are engaged in work formerly done by men. They are employed both in office and shop work and in the former case have donned their overalls and are proving to be efficient and valuable employees."

Mr. Mosser will return to Newark next Monday, having been given a few days vacation by the local board.

sel, William D. Timmons, Walter S. Kuhn of Coshocton, Vincent J. Roll, Fred W. Korzenborn, Newark; J. Rodney Brooks, Coshocton; James A. Clayton, Newark; Joe Touville, Conesville; Jack E. Reader, Coshocton; Carl C. Griffith, Coshocton; Ward W. Sauvel, Coshocton; Homer J. Glancy, Newark; J. W. Gillmore, Coshocton; Clark Edwards, Coshocton; Paul R. Snyder, Karl E. Kuster, Kenneth Coulter, Russell O. Mitchell, Harry W. Etnier, Jordan D. Roller, Fred Simpson, Earl Lanning, Dyke Steinhart, George Piert and Harry Shepard, all of Newark. The Coshocton men came to Newark early to meet the special train here. The men who enlisted under Lieut. Bailey and Private Cormack in Newark, were: Jay Clark, Third and Church street; Adam D. Simmers, 141 East Main street; Eugene Rostofor, Kirkersville; Harry V. Varner, 229 Clarendon; Walter H. Keller, R. D. 8, Newark; Lowell H. Body, 101-2 West Church street; John E. Sprouse, 96 Manning street, and Ralph L. Wright of Utica.

The following men who applied for enlistment, but who have not yet been examined, accompanied the train and will be examined in Columbus: Rue Smith, St. Louisville; Charles F. Powell, Gay street, Rosato Francisco, Racoon avenue, John W. Stump, 20 Wilson street; Oba Nye, Twenty-first street; James F. Grady, 178 South Fourth street; Othmer C. Hurchins, 74 High street; Philip J. Lowry, 171 German street; Charles S. Thompson, Homer; Earl Haycock, Granville; James M. Carson, 377 East Main street; Paul Davis, Hudson avenue.

The men from Utica who joined the special train here, and who were recruited in their home-town under Lieut. Wood, were: Wilson Clark, Glen Tompkins, Ray Grow, Wilbur Elliott, Arthur Stout, Fred Baughman, from Homer; David Turner, Hugh Stout, Chester Butcher, Kyle Parks and Rolly Warthen.

Floyd Carlisle of Utica, who enlisted in Youngstown, also joined the train here.

Word has been received in Utica that Murray Linn had joined the cavalry and is in Bennington, Vt.

The recruits for the 10 or 14 days they are in camp will be located at the state fair grounds, Columbus.

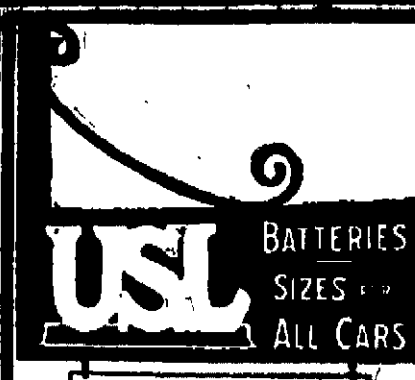

The special train stopped at Pataaskala and took on the following men who were enlisted there under Lieut. Gregg, formerly of Utica: Wm. Needham, Jr., Franklin Arnold, Carleton Adkinson, Murray N. Johnston, Harvey Baird, Carl W. Lind, Ross G. Alexander, Leverett B. Van Dorn, Norval Whetzel and Ned V. Bowie. These boys have signed first papers and will be examined today.

Word was received from Washington today that the states would be given credit for its volunteers on the quota to be drawn. This will greatly reduce the men to be taken from the state in the selective draft.

Approximately estimating the county has about 45 men in the motor train, 50 in Company B, 55 in Battery C, and about 20 in the regular army and other branches of the service. These figures are conservative and when applied to the county's quota, which including Newark is about 321, will leave about 120 men to be taken from the entire county including Newark. But as the city districts are listed separately from the county, it is probable that Newark will have to furnish but few men in the draft.

SEVENTEENTH BIRTHDAY IS A BOY. Toledo, July 14.—Mrs. Charles Johnson, 48 years old, of 44 Greenwood avenue, gave birth to her 17th babe, a boy, yesterday. Eleven of her children are living.

No, Maude dear, it wouldn't be at all nice to refer to the grass widow as a maiden all for lawn.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH CONCERT OF BUCKEYE BAND

Hundreds of people were disappointed last evening when the rain which started falling about 8 o'clock, made it necessary to abandon the concert being given by the Buckeye band from the balcony of the Warden Hotel. The boys then went to the Auditorium theater and played several selections from the stage.

Later a luncheon was served in the band-room, complimentary to the boys who will leave with the Seventh Regiment band of Zanesville tomorrow. Five of the band boys have entered the service. After the luncheon short talks were made by a number of the band boys and several selections were rendered as concert numbers. Emmet McDaniel sent over two fine baskets of delicacies.

Talk About Value!

From the standpoint of educational entertainment, getting a Chautauqua season ticket for $2 is like going to market with a two dollar bill and coming home with enough flour, potatoes, sugar and other physical necessities to last through a hard winter. The head must be fed as well as the stomach.

On the world's counters of worth while entertainment it would cost you a handful of dollars to see and hear all of the stars of the 1917 Chautauqua, but for the price of a single night reservation in a city theater you may hear right at home:

The Killarney Girls, in Irish costumes.
Edwin M. Whitney, in "Turn to the Right!"
The Begnians, music and impersonations.
Ida C. B. Allen, household efficiency expert.
Dr. Ng Poon Chew, "the Chinese Mark Twain."
Montague Company, sketches from familiar operas.
Opie Read, novelist, in humorous philosophy.
Metropolitan Artists, well known Chicago musicians.
Dr. Charles E. Barker, physical adviser to President Taft.
Light Opera "Dorothy," by the Murray-Lane Company.
Christine Giles Company, flute, violin, voice and piano.
Dr. E. T. Hagerman, on "The Man With One Window."
Ralph Bingham, America's chief tumbler.

D. OF V.
Tent No. 25, Daughters of Veterans, met in regular session in Memorial hall, Tuesday evening, with the president, Mrs. Laura Kunkler, presiding. An interesting meeting was held with a good attendance. Mrs. Alice Snoor was initiated into the order.

The tent has formed a circle and taken up Red Cross work. At the close of the meeting, Miss Ella Lamb, in honor of her birthday, treated the ladies and visiting comrades to ice cream and cake, which was very much appreciated.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, July 24, and the president requests all members to be present.

W. R. C.
The Woman's Relief Corps met in regular session, Wednesday afternoon, with a splendid attendance. The members were much enthused over the woman's committee of National Council of Defense and the Woman's Relief Corps adopted as their slogan, "We are behind Hoover."

The W. R. C. with its 100 loyal women are ready to meet any emergency which may arise during the war. Their committee is to meet on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Fleck to complete its arrangements for work on hand. The W. R. C. will meet on Sunday afternoon at Memorial hall to present a flag to the Boy Scouts. It is expected every scout will be present. The public invited to presentation of flag.

A. I. U.
Newark Chapter, No. 24, A. I. U., met in regular session Thursday evening. Five adult applications and 17 junior applications were presented. Officers for the ensuing year were installed and cake and ice cream was served, there being 80 members present.

Members having children between the ages of one and 16, can now have them join the junior department. We now have a class of over 25 and want to make it 50 by the next meeting, July 26, at which time the committee on program, arranging for speaking, music and light refreshments. The speaking will be done principally by the juniors. We want every junior to be present and receive their handsome gold junior pin. Not counting the juniors, Newark chapter now has 530 members.

The following officers were duly installed by District Manager H. B. McLaughlin: Past president, T. W. Grove; president, Jos. M. Spettel; vice president, Mrs. Anna Baldwin; chaplain, Mrs. Dora E. Buecy; secretary, Mrs. Zola M. Wilson, cashier, Mrs. Clara B. McLaughlin; marshal, Miss Mary Applegate; custodian, Miss Mabel Spettel; treasurer, Mrs. Anna Spettel; warder, A. J. Jake-way; arguer, Earl B. Wright; trustee, Mrs. Nanna Grove; pianist, Mrs. Margaret Sullivan; assistant pianist, Miss Rachel E. McLaughlin; editor, H. B. McLaughlin.

K. OF P.
Newark Lodge, No. 13.
The regular weekly meeting of Newark Lodge, No. 13, held on Thursday evening, was well attended. The new officers are taking hold of the work in a way that makes one think that they mean business and that they will follow their predecessors in the high standard of efficiency. The relief committee reports the sick members getting along very satisfactory. One new application was received. Two applications were voted upon and elected to membership. Five esquires being present were called and duly proven in the rank of knight, and the work was enjoyed by all who were present.

Next Thursday evening the page rank will be conferred on a class of candidates in the new form and all members of this team are earnestly requested to be present.

Roland Lodge.
About forty or fifty of the brethren turned out at this week's meeting of Roland Lodge. The time was taken up during the early part of the session with routine business. A delegation of eight or ten Knights from Champion Lodge, Columbus, enlivened the meeting with short but interesting talks. They were welcomed heartily, and after close of lodge the visitors were escorted to the banquet room where the new entertainment committee served bounteous refreshments. Next Tuesday evening the Pace rank will be conferred on a class of six candidates, and as this will be the first effort of the new officers it is hoped that a good crowd will be on hand to encourage them. It is certain that the meeting will not last very long, so don't stay away on account of the weather.

FLAG DAY SPEECH.

Mr. Victor Berger's Milwaukee Leader is not printed in the German language or published in Berlin, but it might as well be both. Here is an extract from a recent editorial: "Words, words, words." "That is the impression we get from the president's flag day speech." "If our motives in the war are so high and holy, why is it that our rulers are not willing to practice democracy at home?" "Deeds—deeds making for democracy in our own country—would be more eloquent than words at this time." "For example, submit the conscription law to a referendum vote of the people. It is not too late by any means. It would not take long to take the vote." "This would be a thousand times more eloquent than words, words, words." We sometimes wish that there were vigilantes of the Montana sort in the U. S. A. these days. Meanwhile, we are glad to see that the writers who call themselves the "Vigilantes" are getting after some of the seditious editors, who, as a recent vigilante article said, "should be treated as a man in a besieged city who is caught poisoning the drinking water."

HOW PEOPLE GET BY.

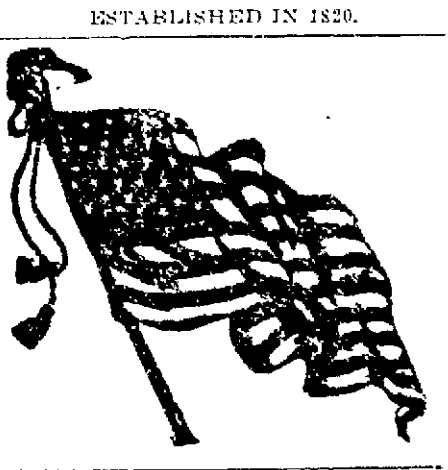

In these high price times, it is certainly a mystery how some families manage to get by. When you consider how prices have risen from $0 to 100 per cent, while wages and salaries have not gone up in that proportion, it is a problem how some families manage to exist and keep together. For a great many people it has been solved by the ability of their children to get work and help support the family. There is such a demand for work of all kinds, that almost any young person of the most middling intelligence can find things to do. It sometimes seems foolish for so many girls to train for stenographers; yet the demand for them keeps up. As fast as one job gets able to take positions, a previous group of them have been married. A young man who can't get work today must be incurably indolent or incredibly stupid. An examination of a leading metropolitan paper the other day showed about six columns of advertisements of Help wanted, and only a column of Situations wanted. Usually the proportion is reversed. So when one wonders how the man who is getting $2.40 and $3.00 a day can get along, it must be considered that frequently he has several children working and turning in money toward family expenses. The whole family may have resources of $2,000 a year. The people who have courage to marry and have children often get the most comfort out of life.

Of course the young married man with a family of little ones has a heavy burden. If the wife goes out and helps earn, the family suffers and the children run wild. The garden and the chicken house are a wonderful help for such people. They must be content with smaller space than their fathers had, but they need a roomy and well utilized back yard. The outskirts of any town supply that, and an inexpensive bicycle will enable the head of the house to get to his work easily.

NEWSPAPERS OF GERMANY.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.) The lot of German newspaper publishers has been far from enviable during the last three years. The sheets have been little more than inspired bulletins. Expressions of editorial opinion are safely made only with the previous approval of some authoritative functionary of the government. Early in the war it was a common practice for the government to punish indiscreet publishers by suspending their publications for a period of days or weeks. Lately, probably because the newspapers have learned their lesson, there have been no reports of suspensions. But there is no question of the autocracy's complete domination of the press. A willing or unwilling tool for the dissemination of lies and misrepresentations, the German press long ago lost its last vestige of self-respect. Apparently all it desired was permission to live. "Freedom of the press," which is a fundamental principle of democracy, is a dead issue in Germany. "Liberty or death" is no slogan of Teuton journalism any more than it is in any other Teuton activity.

But at last German newspaperdom is aroused. The imperial autocrats have commanded that the paper be reduced their use of print paper 50 per cent. Every newspaper voice in Germany, every voice which has meekly carried the imperial cause and cringed beneath the red of Posidon, is raised in plaintive protest. It is asserted that the paper must go out of business if the decree is enforced. That the decree will nevertheless be enforced goes without saying. That is the invariable Prussian way. And if the newspapers do go out of business the German people will lose next to nothing. Newspapers which have resigned their functions and their liberties and which are willing circulators of inspired mendacity have done much to keep the German masses in ignorance of the true causes of the war and of the progress of the conflict. With a very few exceptions the newspapers of Germany can command no sympathy, and the 50 per cent. reduction of their bulk of misrepresentation seems to be a good act unwisely done by the Prussian masters.

QUAKER QUIPS.

(Philadelphia Record.) The fact that silence is golden may have something to do with dumb luck. But to amateur farmers: One way to remove weeds is to marry the widow. Unfortunately, the people who are able to do just as they please are always peace-loving. When they celebrate their wedding a married pair generally act like a couple of sticks. It's hard to judge a man's physical bravery. Many a fellow who is a regular sponge won't like water. "Why have you never married?" asked the family man. "Oh, I prefer to fight his battles single-handed," replied the old bachelor. Conductor—"Where's your ticket?" Tough Passenger—"Aw, I'm traveling on the face." Conductor—"Well, it's immaterial to me whether I punch a ticket or a face."

REPRESSION IN GERMANY.

(Philadelphia Record.) The news from inside of the German empire is much more important than any that comes from the fighting lines. The imperial government was able for a good while to rely upon the loyalty of the people. They are habitually loyal, and they are proud of the Hohenzollerns, and their pulses quicken at the glories of the brief but magnificent German empire. The newspapers were not difficult to manage until recently.

Lately they have been getting out of hand. The empire cannot afford to have public affairs and the military and economic conditions of the country frankly discussed. But public discontent has been rising in a tide that bodes no good to the autocracy, even if it does not actually menace the imperial family. The sufferings of the people have been very great. The disappointment has been incalculable. The Germans have always been assured that any war they might get into would be like the war of 1870.

The campaign has failed. A few irreconcilables are still shouting for annexations and indemnities, but the overwhelming mass of the people, who are intelligent enough to know something about what is going on, know there can be nothing of the sort, and are frantic to get peace without demanding either. The conviction is growing that even this cannot be obtained. Not a word has ever come from the allies indicative of their willingness to call the war a drawn fight.

Not only have the people been disappointed in their military authorities, but they realize that they have been betrayed by their foreign office. They no longer believe, generally, that the allies attacked Germany and the latter had to defend himself. Some of their writers have never ceased to tell the truth, and the facts are precolating through the public mind.

The suffering in the last winter was most severe. The people bore up under it in the belief that the submarines would bring victory before summer. Summer is here. England is gathering another harvest. The submarines have not disabled the enemy, and show no capacity for disabling it. Besides this, the United States has entered the war and most of the Germans know more about the resources of the United States than the official writers think it prudent to admit. The western front is crumbling under the pounding of the French and English, whose reinforcement by the Americans has begun.

The Germans are frantic at the prospect of a fourth war winter. They are desperate. They are clamoring for a military responsible to the reichstag, because such a ministry would abandon the war on any terms. If the present unfavorable conditions can be maintained, and from time to time made more unfavorable by a failure of the grain crops, which seems to be inevitable, or a military disaster, which is by no means out of the question, the people may find means of getting a government that will secure peace for them. The Socialists recently, and the Pan-Germans even before the war, ventured to intimate that the dynasty was not invulnerable. The severity of the censorship is increasing. Repression may prevent some unpleasant expressions, but it only aggravates the conditions. It is a confession of weakness by the government.

"PACIFISTS I HAVE MET"

(By Hapsburg Liebe)

Hapsburg Liebe is a "hillman" of Tennessee. He is also a writer of short stories of adventure which thousands of men and women—mostly men—read every month. So it occurred that Mr. Liebe's opinion of the pacifists might be interesting, especially as Mr. Liebe lives in the Middle West. This is what Mr. Liebe says of the pacifists he has met:—Editor. There are three distinct breeds of them—and I think that nine of every ten of all the pacifists—what a misnomer is that name!—may be grouped under one of those three breeds. Most dangerous of all is the man who deliberately seeks to aid the enemy in his mouthings of peace. He is usually of German blood, and America has not yet succeeded in getting the Kultur out of it. Nearly always he is a good talker, and there are those who are impressed by his peace stuff. If one only listens long enough to one side of any question, you know, one will be convinced; it is inevitable. A man may very easily argue himself out of a God.

But I have infinitely more respect for this class of "pacifists" than I have for the other two groups—I, e., the dreamers of an Elvian peace without paying anything for it; and the slain, everyday milk-and-water cowards. There are far too many of the coward class here in America, and it is a shame for America that I am able to say it. Some of these were made what they are by too much liberty and an utter lack of realization of the big fact that they owe the government, their government, a true debt of allegiance. Others were born cowards, slaves, menials, hewers of wood and drawers of water, born to serve masters and not to call their souls their own. Too much liberty ruins slaves, too. These have had too much liberty. The oldest law in the world is that we must pay for what we get; liberty in Russia or elsewhere in the wide world is dependent on the destruction of the monster of Prussianism.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

U-Boat Sinkings.

We fail to understand how much comfort or joy can be found in the recent U-boat losses, despite the fluctuations and decreases of recent weeks. Even with the lower rate of sinking, Germany is disposing of shipping much faster than it can be launched at the present time, or probably can be launched for a year. There is at least a good chance that the Teutons will be able, by the building of additional submarines and the perfecting of the old and the newer boats, to take care of the accelerated building program upon which we are about to concentrate. That is one of the possibilities that must be foreseen and faced.—Detroit Free Press.

Kerensky's Leadership.

After a while these imbecile persons, both of whom claim Russia as their home, will discover that there are a few things which they cannot do with impunity in the United States.—Philadelphia Record.

"PACIFISTS I HAVE MET"

(By Hapsburg Liebe)

It is unchangeable, immutable—in other words, you can't get around it. The price of peace is war now. I thank heaven that this great war, this Armageddon, bids fair to be the last of its kind; even if Germany wins, you know, it is apt to be the last great war, for then Germany would rule the earth with the mailed fist and keep down war. The world is not yet ready for such a peace as the dreaming "pacifists" hope for. Our veneer of civilization is still too thin; there is too much ignorance, too much savagery in us yet. It is still a game of the survival of the fittest and the destruction of the unfit. In here is the real evolution of the human race; it consists of fighting upward through the dim centuries, from the dust toward the glimmering light of the god-head. And the "pacifists" of today are a part of that which mankind must fight in his old, old and long journey toward the glimmering light of the godhead.

If you are a "pacifist"—I can't bear that word in this connection!—in which class do you belong? If to the first, you should be imprisoned as an agent of the enemy. If to the second, you should dye your skin black and take your place as a dwarf among the black Nubians. If to the third—well, about the only thing that can be done for you is to take you back to the nursery and give you a sugar-water pacifier. "Pacifist" is not treason. Not toward America, but toward the world, but treason just the same and just as black. Why can't they see that peace now is impossible without war? Why can't they see that this is the one chance that the world has to make all nations safe in Democracy, safe from the divine light of kings and the curse of autocracy?

And why do those puny worms of the first set themselves up as wiser than the sages of the Nation? Mr. "Pacifist," you're going to have to shake hands or fight. Which will it be?

That the harpy was a fabulous creature in Greek mythology, considered as a minister of the vengeance of the gods? Various accounts are given of the numbers and parentage of the harpies. Homer mentions but one. Hesiod mentions two—three are sometimes recognized by later writers who call them daughters of Poseidon or of Typhen, and describe them as hideous monsters with wings, of fierce and loathsome aspect, with their faces pale with hunger, living in an atmosphere of filth and contaminating everything that they approached. The name harpy has also been given in modern times to some of the falcans as the harpy eagle of South America, an inhabitant of the great tropical forests, where it preys chiefly on quadrupeds.

High Speed Aeroplanes.

An aviation expert, writing in a British newspaper, dwells on the enormous speed made by the latest flying models. He says that it may be stated that aeroplanes capable of a speed of nearly 150 miles per hour in calm air are in existence. It is likely, too, that certain machines of heavy "loading" (which is not the same thing as great total weight) and small head resistance in a steep dive attain a speed of 250 miles per hour. Certain dangers are encountered by very high speed machines. The dangers were anticipated years ago, and to some extent, at any rate, they are provided for in building. These fast craft have their own degree and problems of instability, and they are no whit easier to fly or safer than slow craft. A diving speed of some thing more than 200 miles per hour having been attained, it seems likely that an entirely new phase is entered upon, requiring very careful consideration.

That the harpy was a fabulous creature in Greek mythology, considered as a minister of the vengeance of the gods? Various accounts are given of the numbers and parentage of the harpies. Homer mentions but one. Hesiod mentions two—three are sometimes recognized by later writers who call them daughters of Poseidon or of Typhen, and describe them as hideous monsters with wings, of fierce and loathsome aspect, with their faces pale with hunger, living in an atmosphere of filth and contaminating everything that they approached. The name harpy has also been given in modern times to some of the falcans as the harpy eagle of South America, an inhabitant of the great tropical forests, where it preys chiefly on quadrupeds.

Society

(Society Editor, Auto Phone 23123.)

Mr. David Fulton of Granville, celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary last Sunday at the old homestead in the Welsh Hills. A sumptuous dinner was served to about twenty-five guests.

Hetuck Chapter D. A. R. held a very interesting meeting with Mrs. S. C. Priest Wednesday. A number of finished garments were left with the chairman and $100 worth of yarn ordered through the local merchants to continue the work on a larger scale. Several beginners were present and interest in knitting for the soldiers increasing, yet the demand is for more and then some more.

The chapter wishes to thank the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. for their many favors.

Miss Martha Grace Miller of Hudson avenue, is entertaining as her guest, Miss Dorothy Fairfield of Westfield, Mass. Miss Fairfield was Miss Miller's classmate at Abbott Academy. Miss Miller is entertaining at her home this evening with a dinner dancing party for the pleasure of her guest.

Messrs. Ellis and Louis Evans entertained the members of the Country Club at their home, Sharon Valley, Friday evening. The hours were devoted to games and refreshments were served.

Miss Mildred Simson entertained at her home, North Sixth street, Friday evening, with a porch and slumber party. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening to the following: Misses Laura Beggs, Mary Kibler, Hazel Colville, Helen Norpell and Muriel Hudson and Virginia Sprague of Cincinnati.

Miss Irene Winters was hostess to the members of the Kantabatus Euchre club, at her home, Sixth street, Thursday evening. Miss Dorothy Allen was added to the membership by a unanimous vote. A delightful evening was spent and a delicious luncheon was served to the members. The trophies were awarded for high score to Miss Jeannette Talbot and Miss Lillian Ruff.

Williams-Shanley.
On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. George Bohm Schmitt, united in marriage Leona Virginia Shanley and Mr. Stanley Williams of Martins Ferry, O. The ceremony took place at Rev. Mr. Schmitt's residence. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Killworth, formerly Miss Rose Powell, cousin of the bride. They will make their home in Wheeling, W. Va. Mrs. Wm. Powell entertained for the bride and bridegroom Monday evening.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ella Strasser of New York City, and Mr. William D. Freed of Buffalo, N. Y. The wedding took place on Tuesday, July 10, in New York City. Mr. Freed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Freed, North Fourth street, this city.

Sperry-James.
Announcement was made on Friday evening of the marriage in Cleveland of Miss Ruth James, formerly of Granville, and Mr. Walter Sperry.

The marriage took place in Cleveland yesterday, and the announcement came as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. Mr. Sperry is a member of the firm of Sperry & Harris, and his home was formerly in Utica.

Mrs. Sperry's home is in Granville, but after taking a special course at Columbia University, following her work as a secretary at Ohio State University, she has been doing social welfare work in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Sperry will make their home in Newark after a short trip.

Granville

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, July 14.—The all-day sewing bee and luncheon given by Mrs. J. D. Thompson yesterday at her home in Broadway was a most gratifying success from every viewpoint. Most of the guests contributed material for children's clothing for the A. F. F. W. and the day's work realized 9 dresses of new material tastefully trimmed; two remodeled dresses and one petticoat, which will be added to the contents of the box at headquarters almost ready for shipment. The luncheon was served in three courses by Mrs. Thompson and her daughters, Mrs. Holden of New York and Miss Ethel. The workers were Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. B. C. Bell, Mrs.

Darrow, Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Case, Miss Darrow, Miss Howland, Miss Ethel Jones.

Mrs. Clara M. Ogden presided at the meeting of the Licking County Equal Suffrage association held at the home of Mrs. Emmett Baugher in Newark yesterday, and much important business received attention. Among other matters the members present voiced their indignation at the recent action of a certain small coterie in Washington which they denounced as nothing more than a "bid for publicity" which the National American Woman Suffrage Association comprising the great body of organized suffragists the country over, deprecates as "absurd, ill-timed and susceptible of grave and demoralizing suspicion." They feel that their attitude toward the "picketers" is much the same as was that of the general public toward the dozen United States senators who so recently achieved an unenviable notoriety "repudiated" by the majority of that august body, and by their constituents.

Another matter which received the unanimous endorsement of those present, was the motion to give a series of parties for the benefit of the war fund. For this enterprise Mrs. Joseph Sprague was elected chairman and the ten units are to be headed by Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Emmett Baugher, Mrs. Joe Sprague, Mrs. Charles McGruder, Mrs. E. S. Randolph, Mrs. E. J. Moore, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. M. E. Baugher, Mrs. Case, Miss Leontine Moore. Business having been disposed of Mrs. Sprague was invited to give a talk on Community Music, which proved intensely interesting, and which should command a wider hearing by Newark people.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deeds, Mrs. Harriett Baker and Mrs. Edith Stone motored to Kilbuck today to visit Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Duer (formerly Miss Dora Lisle).

Rev. E. D. Barnes and 22 of the Junior Boy Scouts passed several days very pleasantly at Buckeye Lake, returning Thursday evening. Dr. Brelsford and Pror. H. D. Fish joined the party for the last day and night of their stay, all finding lodgment in the same cottage.

Otis A. Wilkinson of Mexico, a Denison alumnus, his daughter, Miss Virginia, and his son Robert, both former Denison students, are spending a few days in Granville before the latter is ordered to report for camp duty with Battery D of Dayton.

Harold Kier, a sergeant of Battery D, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kier, left yesterday for Dayton to report for duty. He was accompanied by Parker Tibbe, who has enlisted in the same battery.

Sunday services at the Granville churches—Baptist church: Union service in the evening. Senator Miller of Newark will deliver an address in the interests of prohibition. All are invited. At the morning service the pastor, Dr. Brelsford, will preach.

Rev. McElfresh, district superintendent, will preach for the morning service in the Methodist church.

Rev. E. D. Barnes will conduct the morning services at the Presbyterian church.

Milady's Boudoir

To Stay the Hand of Time.

Since time immemorial the feminine world has waged tireless warfare against wrinkles. They are the unfailing sign of approaching age and if you desire to stay the hand of time from making those countless lines you must constantly feed and care for the tissues so that they will not lose their healthy firmness.

Every woman knows that the skin when in a healthy condition is pliable, transparent and smooth. To keep it in this condition it must be well lubricated and kept thoroughly clean. As soon as the skin is allowed to become dry, it will wrinkle like parchment and it is sometimes next to impossible to eradicate the hairlike lines.

The tissues beneath the skin must be well nourished, for they lose their firmness and shrink the upper layer of skin will wrinkle. One should particularly be careful of the skin in the spring time, for the winds and strong light have a tendency to dry and wrinkle it.

Be extravagant in the use of almond milk, for it is one of the oldest and simplest cosmetics in use. It is invaluable, for it not only softens the skin but refines it as well, always before applying any lotion to

SPREAD THE MEAT FLAVOR

Spread the meat flavor over other foods and so economize on the quantity of meat consumed, says the United States Department of Agriculture. Here is one way to spread the flavor.

MEAT STEW WITH DUMPLINGS

Make a stew from a cheap cut of meat out into small pieces, potatoes, and such other vegetables as are desired. Thicken with a little flour diluted with cold water. Serve with dumplings made as follows: Mix and sift one cup of flour, two teaspoonful of baking powder and one-quarter teaspoonful of salt. Work in with the fingers one teaspoonful of butter; add gradually one-third of a cup of milk or a little more if needed. Roll out one-half inch thick and cut with a biscuit cutter or in square pieces. The dumplings may be steamed, baked like biscuits, or cooked with the stew. In the latter case remove enough liquid to permit the dough to be placed on the meat and vegetables.

the face the skin must be thoroughly cleansed and for this purpose there is nothing like a good scrubbing with a complexion brush, rubbing the brush over the skin with a rotary motion twice a week, and using warm water and liquid soap (green). As some part of an application is essential to enable the brush to move over the skin easily you will find the following mixture the purpose: Iodine, 10 drops; potassium 1-2 dram; glycerine, 1 ounce, distilled water, 1-2 pint. This is cleansing and serves as a soap substitute.

After brushing the face for three or four minutes, rinse with warm water and finally with cold.

Our Boys and Girls

Outdoor sleeping if started during the hot weather, will do more to harden the little muscles than anything else. In the country, where a sleeping porch is permissible, both mother and child should sleep out-of-doors all the year around. Plenty of warm blankets are essential for this as the weather grows colder, but it is wonderfully beneficial for the baby.

If the child has been having cold or cool baths all summer, it is advantageous to continue this, but the mother should be sure of two things—first that the room is quite warm; second, that the child has been removed from the water so that it is not actually cold, but nearer tepid in temperature.

The cool baths will be found very healthful if both these conditions are strictly kept. Otherwise a chill might result which would be apt to throw the child into convulsions.

The Courts

Ask Re-Hearing.

Notices have been issued and served on behalf of Emmel Greenberg and Charles Kimmelman to the effect that applications will be made for a re-hearing of the charges upon which they were bound over by the mayor to the grand jury. The charges are embezzlement and obtaining money under false pretenses. The notices state that the cases will be for hearing at 9 a. m. Wednesday, July 18th.

To Appeal Case.

The case of J. D. Keeley vs. Jesse McCray, et al., will be taken to the court of appeals by the defendants on error. Plaintiff recovered a judgment in the common pleas court ordering a deed set aside, the suit being to enforce the collection of a judgment. The defendant will ask the court of appeals to reverse the finding of the lower court.

Divorce Petitions.

Myrtle Givens vs. Thomas Givens. The petition relates that the couple were married in October, 1915, and that no children were born to them. The plaintiff charges cruelty and that defendant struck her and threatened to carry away household goods in which she had a half interest. She prays for an injunction to prevent this and for divorce and alimony and the restoration of her maiden name.

George A. Long vs. Alta Long. The couple were married in November, 1915. They have no children. Plaintiff charges neglect of duty, desertion and adultery. Prays for divorce and all rightful relief.

Judicial Statistics.

The report of the probate court on judicial statistics has been made to the secretary of state, for the year ending June 30, 1917.

In 1916 there were 178 cases filed for divorce; 75 were decided and 11 dismissed; 65 cases were brought by the husband, and 113 by the wife. In 1917 there were 104 cases, 51 decided and 9 dismissed; 23 were brought by the husband and 81 by the wife. The above shows a decrease in divorces in 1917.

In 1916 there were 11 cases of crime against the persons; nine were quashed. In 1917, 20 cases were brought and 17 quashed.

Trifluorides; see shroud rd uuln There were three cases of crimes against property in 1916 with two quashed. There were 7 in 1917, with two quashed.

In 1916 there were three cases against the public peace and health, all of which were quashed, and none in 1917.

There was one case against the public morals in 1916 and one in 1917. Both were quashed.

Regulations Tell of Men Drawn Who Will Receive Exemption In Draft

Rules Laid Down by President Give Local Boards Exact Instructions to Follow In Every Case

Men Who Have Dependents, Office Holders, Munition and Mail Workers Are Some Who Will Be Out of It

THESE CLASSES EXEMPT; STATUS MUST BE PROVED

These classes are exempt from draft upon proof of their status: Men indispensable to industries necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment or the national interest.

Men with wives, children, parents, brothers or sisters dependent solely upon them for support. Members of recognized religious sects whose creed forbids bearing arms, students of divinity, ordained or regular ministers.

Legislative, judicial and executive officers of the United States or the states of the Union. Men in the army or navy of the United States.

Germans and aliens who have not taken out first citizenship papers.

Workmen in the armories, arsenals and navy yards of the United States and men engaged in the transmission of the United States mails.

Pilots and mariners in the merchant marine of the United States. Criminals convicted of felonies.

supporting affidavits from heads of families living in the local area and belonging to the minister's church, sect or organization.

"A duly ordained minister of religion," the regulations say, "is a person who has been ordained in accordance with the ceremonial ritual or discipline of a church, religious sect or organization established on the basis of a community of faith and belief, doctrines and practices of a religious character, to preach and to teach the doctrines of such church, sect or organization and to administer the rites and ceremonies thereof in public worship, and who as his regular and customary vocation preaches and teaches the principles of religion and administers the ordinances of public worship as embodied in the creed or principles of such church, sect or organization."

Preachers Not Ordained.

A regular minister is one who "as his customary vocation preaches and teaches the principles of religion of a church, sect or organization of which he is a member without having been duly ordained as a minister of religion and who is recognized by such church, sect or organization as a regular minister." Neither of these classes include those who "irregularly or incidentally preach and teach." Students of divinity to claim exemption must have been enrolled in a recognized theological or divinity school on May 18 last and must present supporting affidavits by the president, dean or head of the school.

"Persons in the military or naval service of the United States" embraces those within the classes defined at the time of the registration. Germans and "all other resident aliens who have not taken out their first papers" come within the mandatory rules of exemption. As to the former it is added:

"No subject of Germany residing in the United States, whether he has taken out his first papers or not, will be accepted for service. When in the opinion of a local board any person called for service is a subject of Germany, whether he has or has not declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States or whether he or some other person in respect of him has or has not filed a claim of exemption, he shall be exempted and a certificate of exemption issued to him."

Not all exemptions allowed by the local boards will be absolute. "No exemption shall continue when a cause therefor no longer exists," the regulations declare, and when the cause ceases the certificate is to be revoked. The provost marshal general is empowered to name representatives, who may take appeals from the local boards to the district boards, which are to sit in New York city and in each federal judicial district. Appeals from district boards may be taken to the president, and individuals have the same right of appeal that the provost marshal general has.

Subject to Discharge.

This right of appeal covers discharges as well as exemptions. Discharges must be applied for within seven days after notice to appear for examination has been mailed. The classes who may obtain discharges include custom house clerks, persons employed in the transmission of the mails, artificers and workmen employed in the armories, arsenals and navy yards of the United States, persons employed in the service of the United States designated by the president to be exempted, pilots, mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the country.

With the exception of pilots, who must have affidavits from the collector or deputy collector of the port from which they regularly sail—all these persons must submit affidavits from responsible officers that they cannot be "replaced by another person without substantial material loss of efficiency in operation or administration" of the service in which the applicant may be employed.

The regulations affecting "those in a status with respect to persons dependent upon them for support which renders their exclusion or discharge desirable" require 8,500 words for their setting forth. Applications for discharge under these heads may be made by the man himself, by the dependent or by some person acting for him. The classes are the following:

"Any married man whose wife or child is dependent upon his labor for support." Such a man must present, within ten days after filing a claim for discharge, an affidavit signed by him, giving his name, age and place of residence; the name and place of residence of his wife; the name(s), age(s) and place of residence of his child or children. If any, and stating that he is a married man, the husband of said wife, the father of her child or children; that such wife, child or children is (are) dependent upon his labor for support as the term "labor" is used in the rules and regulations; that his income from which such wife and child, or children, received such support was mainly the fruit of his mental or physical labor and was not mainly derived from property or other sources independent of his mental or physical labor.

A supporting affidavit must be given by the wife, in which she sets forth "the approximate amount of her separate income and the independent income of their child or children during the last preceding year, exclusive of any sums received from her husband and exclusive of any gifts to her or her child or children, the same being merely the income derived from the separate or independent income property of, or property held in trust for, her, the child or children."

When a wife files a supporting affidavit it must be upheld by an affidavit from a head of a family residing in the local area. When a wife does not support, but herself makes application for a husband's discharge she must cover the same ground and have two supporting affidavits from heads of families residing in the local area, unless the wife lives outside this area, in which case the affidavits may come from the area in which she lives.

When neither the wife nor the husband makes the application it may be made by some one "personally well acquainted with such husband and his wife, child or children," who has "personally made an investigation of the sources of income of the wife." The person filing such an application must present therewith the marriage certificate or a certified copy of it, or submit the affidavits of two persons who were present when the marriage took place.

Similar procedure must be followed in the case of "any son of a widow dependent upon his labor for support," and in the case of the "son of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent upon his labor for support," for the "father of a motherless child or children under sixteen years of age dependent upon his labor for support" and for the "brother of a child or children under sixteen years of age who has (have) neither father nor mother and is (are) dependent upon his labor."

What Labor Is.

"Labor" is defined in this way:

"For the purpose of these rules and regulations 'labor' shall be construed to mean bodily or mental exertion. It may be either physical or intellectual; it may be professional, mechanical, commercial, clerical or agricultural, and each of these forms of labor may exist under modifications or in combination with each other. The means for the support of the dependent or dependents must be produced by this labor, whatever its character. It need not be wholly produced from it, but it must be mainly so. A dependent receiving support from a person whose income is derived from dividends or rents cannot be said to be dependent upon his labor, but if that income were entirely the fruit of professional or physical toil then such person would be dependent upon his labor."

"For the purpose of these rules and regulations," it is added, "by the term 'aged or infirm' parent or parents is meant those persons who from old age and infirmity are disabled from earning the means of supporting themselves and who by reason of such age or infirmity have become dependent for the means of support upon the person in respect of whom the claim is made."

"If any person claiming exemption or discharge shall file affidavits in support thereof, one such affidavit should contain the statement that he binds himself to report at once in person to the local board by which he was called and notify it whenever the conditions entitling him to exemption or discharge cease to exist."

Conscientious objectors must, within ten days after filing their claims, present affidavits setting forth:

That the applicant "is a member in good faith and in good standing of a well recognized religious sect or organization (giving the name thereof) organized and existing May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbid its members to participate in war in any form, and that the religious convictions are against war or participation therein, in accordance with the principles of said organization."

Must Support Contentions.

This must be supported by an affidavit from the clerk or minister of the organization, and "in case any such person substantiates in the opinion of the local board his claim, such local board shall issue a certificate stating that such person shall not be required or compelled to serve in any capacity except in some capacity declared by the president to be noncombatant."

"Those found to be morally deficient" are to be discharged "upon presentation by any person to the local board by which he was drawn for service of a certificate of the clerk of any court of record in the United States showing that the record of such court discloses that such person was at a time stated convicted of felony and sentenced in such court."

The district boards provided for are to have reviewing powers for the most part. They will, however, have original authority in the matter of "all questions or claims for including or excluding or discharging persons arising under the following provisions of the act of congress authorizing the president to exclude or discharge 'persons engaged in industries, including agriculture, found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment or the effective operation of the military forces or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency.'"

All claims of this sort must be supported by affidavits setting forth that the applicant "is actually engaged in a particular, designated industrial enterprise necessary to (any of the three things stated in the act); that his continuance therein is necessary to the maintenance thereof and that he cannot be replaced by another person without direct substantial material loss and detriment to the adequate and effective operation of the enterprise in which he is engaged."

HOOVER HAS TEXT FOR HOUSEWIVES

Food Administrator Issues a Card Which Urges Economy.

WANTS IT IN EVERY KITCHEN

Save the Wheat, Save the Meat, Save the Milk, Save the Fats, Save the Sugar and Save the Fuel Are His Injunctions to All Patriotic Women. He Tells How to Do It.

Food Administrator Hoover announced the text of his injunctions to American housewives. A card containing these requests will soon, he hopes, hang in every kitchen. It reads: IS ANY OF THIS TOO HARD?

UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION.

Win the war by giving your own daily service.

SAVE THE WHEAT.—One wheatless meal a day. Use corn, oatmeal, rye or barley bread and nonwheat breakfast foods. Order bread twenty-four hours in advance, so your baker will not bake beyond his needs. Cut the loaf on the table and only as required. Use stale bread for cooking, toast, etc. Eat less cake and pastry.

Our wheat harvest is far below normal. If each person weekly saves one pound of wheat flour, that means 150,000,000 more bushels of wheat for the allies to mix in their bread. This will help them to save democracy.

SAVE THE MEAT.—Beef, mutton or pork not more than once daily. Use freely vegetables and fish. At the meat meal serve smaller portions and stews instead of steaks. Make made dishes of all leftovers. Do this and there will be meat enough for every one at a reasonable price.

We are today killing the dairy cows and female calves as the result of high prices. Therefore eat less, and eat no young meat. If we save an ounce of meat each day a person we will have additional supply equal to 2,200,000 cattle.

SAVE THE MILK.—The children must have milk. Use every drop. Use buttermilk and sour milk for cooking and making cottage cheese. Use less cream.

SAVE THE FATS.—We are the world's greatest fat wasters. Fat is food. Butter is essential for the growth and health of children. Use butter on the table as usual, but not in cooking. Other fats are as good. Reduce use of fried foods. Soap contains fats. Do not waste it. Make your own washing soap at home out of the saved fats.

Use one-third ounce less per day of animal fat and 375,000 tons will be saved yearly.

SAVE THE SUGAR.—Sugar is scarce. We use today three times as much per person as our allies. So there may be enough for all at reasonable prices use less candy and sweet drinks. Do not stint sugar in putting up fruit and jams. They will save butter.

If every one in America saves one ounce of sugar daily it means 1,100,000 tons for the year.

SAVE THE FUEL.—Coal comes from a distance, and our railways are overburdened hauling war material. Help relieve them by burning fewer fires. Use wood when you can get it.

USE PERISHABLE FOODS.—Fruits and vegetables we have in abundance. As a nation we eat too little green stuffs. Double their use and improve your health. Store potatoes and other roots properly and they will keep. Begin now to can or dry all surplus garden products.

USE LOCAL SUPPLIES.—Patronize your local producer. Distance means money. Buy perishable food from the neighborhood nearest you and thus save transportation.

General Rules.

Buy less, serve smaller portions. Preach the "gospel of the clean plate."

Don't eat a fourth meal. Don't limit the plain food of growing children.

Watch out for the wastes in the community.

Full garbage pails in America mean empty dinner pails in America and Europe.

If the more fortunate of our people will avoid waste and eat no more than they need the high cost of living problem of the less fortunate will be solved.

HERBERT C. HOOVER, United States Food Commissioner.

FORTY BAKERY COMPANIES.

One Will Go With Each Contingent Sent Overseas.

The war department ordered the quartermaster general to form forty bakery companies at once. These companies are made up of expert bakers and cooks.

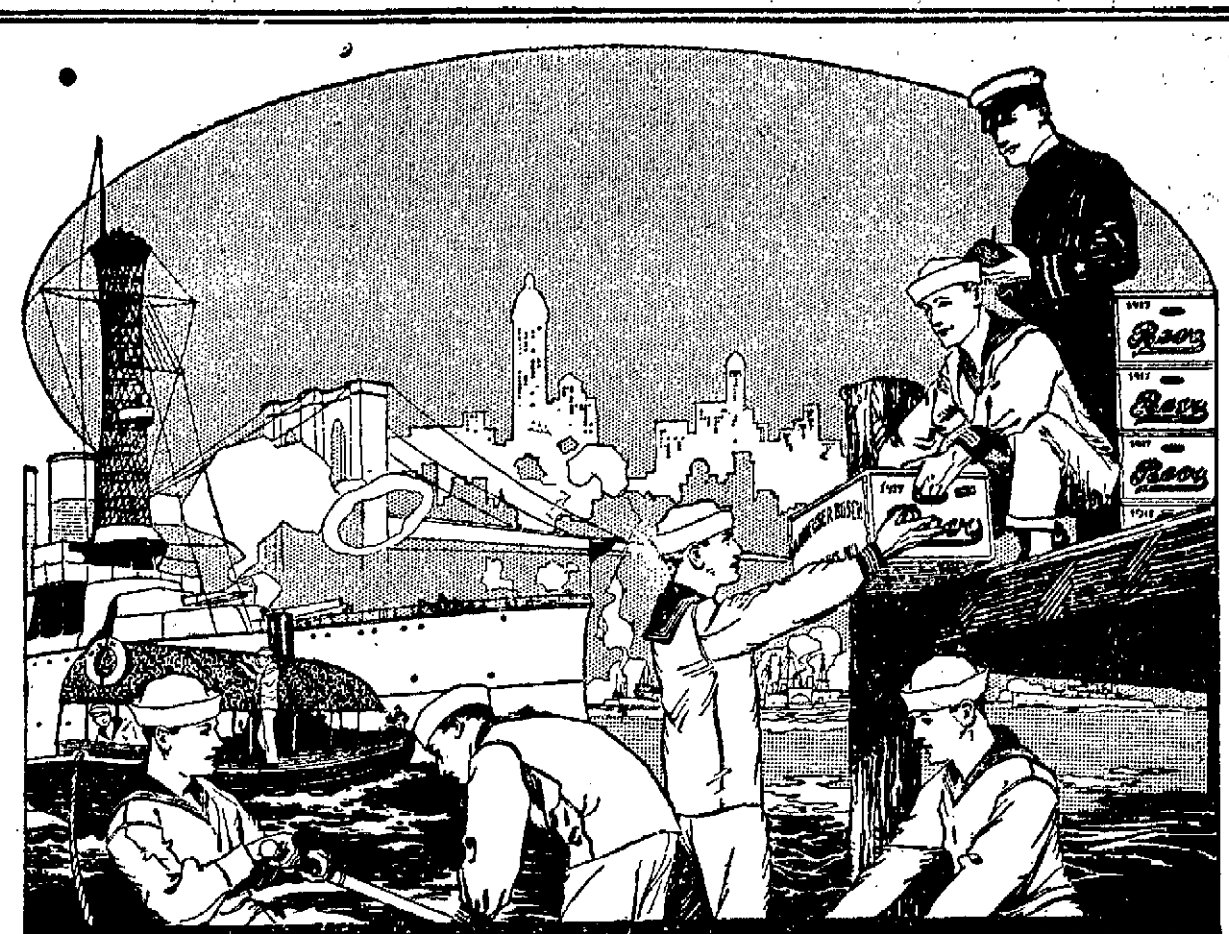

With each contingent sent overseas will be one bakery company, carrying the newest breadmaking machinery. The bakeries will be set up behind the lines.

If it is impossible to find bakers and cooks in the army men from those industries drawn in the draft will be put into bakery companies.

Safety First.

Yonkers, N. Y., has its fire apparatus insured against fire and its patrol wagon insured against burglars.

Love is a disease. Jealousy and suspicion are the only antidotes.

Amusements

Auditorium.

A special feature of the Auditorium today is the Pathe Weekly in which is seen the American expedition leaving for France. These are official pictures made by the U. S. government and shows our troops leaving for a secret destination in France. The arrival of a flotilla of British submarines landing at an American port and many other interesting events are shown.

This feature is seen together with George Walsh in "Some Boy" today.

"Neptune's Daughter."
Manager Fenberg of the Auditorium brings back for one day Annette Kellerman, the diving Venus in "Neptune's Daughter" and is promised a new print by the film company. This picture although seen here before is such a wonderful production that many will want to see it again. It is a weird, wild and wonderful spectacle, made in Bermuda, with Herbert Brenon, director and in which he is also seen as an actor. The picture shows the life of the king, in which she has to wear boys' clothes, and a beautiful boy. Annette Kellerman plays the king and little Katherine Lee, always welcome in Newark is seen as a baby mermaid. There is a wonderful production, and the showings as usual are continuous starting at 1 p. m.

"Within the Law."
Manager Geo. Fenberg in presenting for the first time next Monday evening the Auditorium Stock Co. believes he has selected one of the strongest plays for the opening that was possible to get. "Within the Law" written by Bayard Veiller, a drama of timely interest, as it deals with the law and the courts of the Metropolitan Police department. Mr. Veiller can surely congratulate himself for his play has many stirring scenes and was one of the greatest money getters on the road several seasons ago, it making a fortune for the producers. In both New York and Chicago the play ran for a year. Miss Grace Baird who is seen as Mary Turner is sure to achieve great success with Newark theater goes for in the role of Mary Turner she appears as a sales girl in a department store, who is sent to jail for stealing goods, a crime of which she is innocent. She determines to break vengeance on the department store proprietor who sent her to jail, and in various ways, but makes it the purpose of her life to always keep her crooked dealings within the law.

With a repertoire of most extraordinarily bizarre clothes to assist her, Mary lays herself out to fascinate the men of her department store enemy. Mary never rests nor stops changing her clothes until she has married this man and the scene in which she makes the news of who she really is to his father forms the climax of the second act. And the management promises Baird to be equal to the part and she should receive a royal welcome. Mr. James H. Cooper as Joe Garson, Mr. James H. Cooper as the owner of the department store, Mr. Walker as the son in fact, Mr. Olinneyer, Mr. Lewis, Miss Hill, Miss Carroll, Mr. Carroll and the others in the cast are sure to make themselves seen and heard in the wonderful production that will be seen at this theater Monday night. The matinee a week, will be a change of bill on Monday and Thursday. Popular prices to prevail and seats are now selling for the entire week. The Paramount-Fox program pictures will be seen as usual during the entire run of the stock engagement.

Picture Program.
The feature picture program for next week at the Auditorium in connection with the stock engagement that the management is trying to make a good one and the following stars will be seen: Monday and Tuesday, House Peters in "The Heir of the House," a Paramount picture that will be one of the best Mr. Peters has played in for some time. As an added feature, a Pathe news weekly will also be screened. On Monday the pictures will be seen all afternoon until 5 p. m. and again at 7 p. m., the evening show lasting a half hour. On Wednesday and Thursday George Beban will be seen in his latest "A Roadside Impression." Friday and Saturday Valdez Suratt in "The Siren." Wednesday as usual Mrs. Vernon Castle will be seen in "Patricia" and Monday and Saturday the Hearst-Pathe news will be screened.

Visit Buckeye Lake.
James Cooper, who is leading man and director of the Auditorium Stock Co. has promised his artists a vacation tomorrow if they would put in special efforts for the Monday night production of "Within the Law," and the entire company will visit Buckeye Lake. The members of the company comprise the following: Mr. Cooper, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Walker, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Olinneyer, Mr. Carl, Miss Baird, Miss Hill, Miss Baker and Miss Kyie. They all are looking forward to a pleasant day at our own summer resort, this being the first visit of these celebrities to this place.

Manager Crook Language.
Manager Fenberg in offering for his first play on next Monday to Newark public believes that a little crook language should be dealt out and has looked up the following slang phrases:
"Sir," meaning jail or penitentiary.
"Gook," to kill.
"Stool pigeon," a crook who works with the police.
"A bit," a term in prison.
"Blew," to get away.
"Dip," a pickpocket.
"Harness bull," a uniformed policeman.
"Dick," a detective.
"Dame," a girl or a woman.
"Pipe," look or watch me.
"Super," a watch.
"Kale," coin.
"Soft," paper money.
"Fence," one who buys and sells stolen goods.
"Gopher," a safe.
"Steer," to point out, show the way, etc.
"Spark," a diamond.
"Book," one who fails to see "Within the Law" at popular prices.
"Wise guy," one who does see "Within the Law."

ALHAMBRA.
Sunday.
The clock of this hypocrisy, or ignorance, if you please, is drawn aside by Henry B. Walthall in his current Essanay drama, "The Saint's Adventure." A phase of misadventure, which enjoys prevalence and alone in the big cities, but even unto the smallest hamlet, is vividly brought to light. The old adage, "charity begins at home," is forcibly pictured.

Aside from this underlying preachment, "The Saint's Adventure" affords excellent entertainment for those who seek nothing more. The picture has been beautifully done, technically. And Mr. Walthall's love drama with Mary Charleston, who appears as his leading woman, is as delightful a bit of screen work as ever was attained.

Monday and Tuesday.
One of the most startling crashes in the recent financial history of the United States forms the basis of "High Play," a new spectacular photodrama produced by the American Film Company, Inc., and released by the Mutual Film Corporation with that popular young star, William Russell, in the heroic role.

The story is by Julius Grinnell Furthmann, one of the best known scenario writers in the country. It made a close study of the sensational scandal involving love and high finance around which the play is built—its dramatic action being such as to subtly suggest the real life identity of the principal characters.

The plot furnishes a thoroughly satisfactory medium for Mr. Russell, who is cast as John Servier, vice president of a bank company, this accomplished actor appearing at his best in heroic characterizations that involve the graceful athlete in clambouring and crush it.

The young bank officer becomes entangled with Elaine Hammond, whose father, Jim Hammond, is a boss gambler and a sinister power in the metropolitan underworld.

"The Neglected Wife."
Literally, millions of people have read the stories of domestic life, which Mabel Herbert Truer has been contributing to the press of the country for several years past. They have been so intimate that they have won a place for themselves in the affections of countless readers.

Realizing their popularity, Pathe has visualized Mrs. Truer's work in motion pictures. The result is the photoplay serial, "The Neglected Wife." The serial was developed by Will M. Ritchey.

The leading parts are played by Ruth Roland and Roland Eostomley supported by a cast which includes Corinne Grant, Philo McCullough, Daniel Gil-father, Mollie McConnell, and many other well known players. The production was made under the direction of William Bertram.

"The Neglected Wife" is in fifteen episodes of two reels each. The story is a natural one, such as might happen in any family; and no doubt, many men and women watching it unfold on the screen will be surprised how near their lives have been paralleled by the writer. While it does not depend on thrills to grip, there are some big effects in each installment.

Perhaps it's the very absence of rocks that explains why the course of true love never runs smooth.

BATTLESHIP IS BLOWN UP WITH LOSS OF 773 MEN; INTERNAL BLAST BLAMED

London, July 14.—The British battleship Vanguard blew up and sank July 9, says an official statement issued last night by the British admiralty.

An internal explosion while the ship was at anchor caused the disaster to the Vanguard.

Only three men of those on board survived, and one of them later died. Twenty-four officers and 71 men, however, were not on board at the time of the explosion. Her full complement is reported to have been 870 men. The number of lives lost, therefore, is estimated at 773.

The Vanguard displaced 19,250 tons. She belonged to the St. Vincent class of dreadnoughts, and was launched in March, 1909. The Vanguard was 563 feet long, with a beam of 84 feet and a draft of 27 feet. Her armament consisted of 10 twelve-inch guns, 13 four-inch and 4 three-pounders in addition to three torpedo tubes.

The official statement reads: "H. M. S. Vanguard, Capt. James D. Dick, blew up while at anchor the night of July 9, as the result of an internal explosion."

"The ship sank immediately, and there were only three survivors among those aboard ship at the time of the disaster, one officer and two men. The officer has since died. There were, however, 24 officers and 71 men not on board at the time, thus bringing the total number of survivors to 97."

"A full inquiry has been ordered."

Perhaps it's the very absence of rocks that explains why the course of true love never runs smooth.

Miss Edna Sheely.

Miss Edna Sheely, of Washington, D. C., has recently been made chairman of the Catholic women's war relief committee, inaugurated by the Catholic alumnas. Miss Sheely is also a member of the women's committee of the national council of defence and is one of the commission on training camp activities.

Some men aim so high that they shoot right over our heads.

James Cooper, who is leading man and director of the Auditorium Stock Co. has promised his artists a vacation tomorrow if they would put in special efforts for the Monday night production of "Within the Law," and the entire company will visit Buckeye Lake. The members of the company comprise the following: Mr. Cooper, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Walker, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Carroll, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Olinneyer, Mr. Carl, Miss Baird, Miss Hill, Miss Baker and Miss Kyie. They all are looking forward to a pleasant day at our own summer resort, this being the first visit of these celebrities to this place.

Manager Crook Language.
Manager Fenberg in offering for his first play on next Monday to Newark public believes that a little crook language should be dealt out and has looked up the following slang phrases:
"Sir," meaning jail or penitentiary.
"Gook," to kill.
"Stool pigeon," a crook who works with the police.
"A bit," a term in prison.
"Blew," to get away.
"Dip," a pickpocket.
"Harness bull," a uniformed policeman.
"Dick," a detective.
"Dame," a girl or a woman.
"Pipe," look or watch me.
"Super," a watch.
"Kale," coin.
"Soft," paper money.
"Fence," one who buys and sells stolen goods.
"Gopher," a safe.
"Steer," to point out, show the way, etc.
"Spark," a diamond.
"Book," one who fails to see "Within the Law" at popular prices.
"Wise guy," one who does see "Within the Law."

ALHAMBRA.
Sunday.
The clock of this hypocrisy, or ignorance, if you please, is drawn aside by Henry B. Walthall in his current Essanay drama, "The Saint's Adventure." A phase of misadventure, which enjoys prevalence and alone in the big cities, but even unto the smallest hamlet, is vividly brought to light. The old adage, "charity begins at home," is forcibly pictured.

Aside from this underlying preachment, "The Saint's Adventure" affords excellent entertainment for those who seek nothing more. The picture has been beautifully done, technically. And Mr. Walthall's love drama with Mary Charleston, who appears as his leading woman, is as delightful a bit of screen work as ever was attained.

Monday and Tuesday.
One of the most startling crashes in the recent financial history of the United States forms the basis of "High Play," a new spectacular photodrama produced by the American Film Company, Inc., and released by the Mutual Film Corporation with that popular young star, William Russell, in the heroic role.

The story is by Julius Grinnell Furthmann, one of the best known scenario writers in the country. It made a close study of the sensational scandal involving love and high finance around which the play is built—its dra-fun and clever pantomime introduced to suit the taste of Chautauqua "fans." The Hussars—thirteen in number—were organized several years ago by Ralph Dunbar, whose success as a producer of musical companies is well known. Under his direction the company has made frequent transcontinental tours. In New York city one paper said, "The Hussars are immaculately groomed, good looking young men who play well and sing well and will pass muster anywhere." From Philadelphia, "The Hussars made a splendid appearance and were enjoyed time after time." From Chicago, "They played Sousa's music just as though Sousa were there to direct it." From Cincinnati: "They easily carried off the honors. Voices were good, the music was good, and in all respects the company is 'all to the good.'" From Louisville: "If you think you have heard band music hear the Hussars. They not only play good music, but sing as well. They are particularly satisfying and make a fine appearance."

"SERIAL PARTIES" WILL BE GIVEN BY LOCAL WOMEN

The Licking County Equal Suffrage Association at its regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Emmett Baugher in Newark Friday afternoon, arrived at the conclusion that since the country is asking of women, service as farmers, mechanics, nurses, doctors, munition makers, yeomen, bell boys, messengers, army cooks ambulance drivers, men's substitutes in industry and trade, advisers to the council of National Defense and getting it, the members of the Licking County Suffrage Association being called upon for none of these advisers, but willing "to do their bit," will make a drive for the war fund of Newark along different lines, and ask for the co-operation of Newark women in the "serial parties" to be given.

Mrs. Joseph Sprague was elected chairman of the committee, and she will be supported by Mrs. Clara M. Ogden, Mrs. Emmett Baugher, Mrs. Charles McGrunder, Mrs. E. S. Randolph, Mrs. E. J. Moore, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. M. E. Baugher, Mrs. Case and Miss Leontine Moore, who will take the initiative, give the first of the parties and have charge of the ten units.

The women of this city and of other communities in the county are doing magnificent work for the relief of suffering humanity, and it is time the tenseness of their effort should relax. The plan outlined will admirably serve the double purpose of furnishing social diversion and helping the cause of war relief. Each hostess may choose her own means of entertainment, and each guest must in turn become responsible for the disposal of the tickets left in her charge. By this method the aims and purposes of the different committees benefitted will be more widely diffused, and a greater number of women will become interested than is now possible by simply inviting them to come to headquarters and work. All money realized will be turned over to the relief committee.

MINERS

IN KENTUCKY ARE ON THE VERGE OF WAR AND CLASH MAY TAKE PLACE.

Trouble Predicted and Sheriff Unable to Cope With Situation.

Frankfort, Ky., July 14.—Governor A. O. Stanley announced early today that he had ordered Adjutant General J. Tandy Ellis to go at once to Providence, Webster county, with Company A, signal troop of Lexington. Governor Stanley said the sheriff of Webster county had informed him that a thousand striking white miners and an equal number of negro miners were on the verge of war in Providence where picketing has been going on. The sheriff is said to be unable to obtain a posse. He is apprehensive of an outbreak between the two forces.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Company A, signal corps, of the Kentucky National Guard, left here on a special train early today for Providence.

RUMOR THAT EMPEROR HAS QUIT THE THRONE

(Continued From Page 1) couraging aspect for the formidable group of nations allied against the central powers, this generally being taken into consideration in dealing with the situation in Berlin and Vienna. The Russian revolutionary armies in Galicia are still sweeping forward. Apparently there is little to stop them pouring through the breach in the lines in eastern Galicia opened by general Korniloff. They are pushing on north of the Dniester and west of the Lomnica, and generally proving victors in the fighting going on along the 50-mile front.

On the Franco-Belgian front a waiting policy is being pursued by General Haig on the British end of the line, and General Petain in the French section.

There has been only local fighting by either group of armies.

STORY UNCONFIRMED. London, July 14.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Amsterdam says, that rumors current that Emperor William has abdicated in favor of his son, Prince Joachim, are unconfirmed, and must be taken with all reserve.

CALL TO COLORS IS ANSWERED BY OHIO SOLDIERS

(Continued From Page 1.) today. Tomorrow all additional units will be called. The units to be called tomorrow will be held at their local armories until sent to the southern training camp.

The supply and ammunition trains concentrated at the state fair grounds in Columbus. Federal inspection of the new units was begun immediately. By tomorrow 2000 soldiers will be encamped at the fair grounds.

Temporary equipment only could be furnished troops mobilized here today. Two thousand blankets were borrowed from the state penitentiary. Uniforms will be issued as they can be secured. There is possibility of some of the men not being uniformed before they reach the southern concentration camp. The shortage of supplies of this kind will affect most units to some extent but there will be plenty of equipment, officers say, by the time actual training in the south is started.

Out of the maze of orders flying from headquarters to all parts of the state today went close to 200 announcing promotions and commissions of officers. Some 175 captains and lieutenants were commissioned, along with numerous field officers.

J. J. Saslasky of Cincinnati, who has been chief clerk in the adjutant general's office, drew a reward for services by getting a captain's commission and assigned as adjutant of the divisional ammunition and supply trains and military police. He had served a clerkship during the Willis and first Cox administrations.

Victor Heintz, who has just resigned as member of congress to engage in military service, was recommissioned adjutant of the First regiment.

Capt. John R. Southon and Capt. Fred C. Valentine, both of the Fifth Infantry, Cleveland, were commissioned majors.

Capt. H. J. Albrecht of Akron, is to be a lieutenant colonel of the First Field Artillery and Maj. Geo. B. Greenhalge of Toledo is rewarded with a lieutenant colonelcy in the Second Field Artillery.

Lt. L. C. Davis of Pomeroy, Co. C, Seventh regiment, was commissioned a major in that regiment.

Capt. E. C. Williams and L. S. Schlegel of Cleveland, both of the First Field Artillery, got commissions as majors. Capt. Fayette Brown of Cleveland will be a major in the Second Field Artillery.

Maj. Fred M. Fanning of Cleveland, was promoted to lieutenant colonel of the engineering corps.

Capt. Fred E. Trovan and Fred Vandenberg, both of Cleveland, were commissioned majors in the same unit.

It was said at headquarters that names of new captains and lieutenants commissioned today will not be announced until later in the day. An extra corps of stenographers was pressed into service at the adjutant general's office to assist in the big task of handling the reports, writing out of commissions and similar work that has swamped the usual force.

Messages from Secretary of War last night to Adjutant General Wood said General Barry, in charge of the Chicago division of the regular army, would inform guard officers of the points of mobilization for Ohio troops tomorrow but it is presumed that he will merely specify the local armories maintained for each company, battery or regiment. It is believed that there will be no district assembling of the men until time comes for movement of the entire guard to Montgomery.

TO CONSIDER MEANS OF STOPPING THEFT

Columbus, O., July 14.—So many automobiles have been stolen in Ohio recently that W. A. McCurdy, state automobile registrar today called a meeting here for next Thursday of chiefs of police and presidents of automobile clubs to consider ways and means of stopping the wholesale thefts.

"The situation is so serious that some action must be taken at once," said Mr. McCurdy. "Automobiles are being stolen so fast that we have no manner of knowing the exact number missing. In Cleveland 59 machines were stolen last Saturday afternoon alone."

Registrar McCurdy has asked the automobile clubs in the various cities to pay the expenses of the chief of police to the meeting. He said that already assurances have been received from Cleveland, Cincinnati, Akron, Canton, Toledo and Dayton that representatives will be sent.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE NOW IN PERMANENT CAMP

Paris, July 14.—The vanguard of the American troops who left on Thursday the seaport town where they have been encamped, arrived at their permanent camp today. The men went into training immediately notwithstanding the holiday order that had been issued by General Pershing.

Major General Sibert, who will be in command at the camp, lunched with General Pershing after watching the military spectacles of the day here, the two officers holding their final conference before General Sibert's departure for the front. General Pershing will follow him after a time.

GRAND JURY INDICTS BERKMAN FOR MURDER

San Francisco, July 14.—Alexander Berkman, anarchist, was indicted by the county grand jury here last night for murder in connection with a bomb explosion here last July which claimed 16 lives, it became known today Berkman is alleged to have taken part in the conspiracy which the charges culminated in the explosion.

Berkman is now serving a term of two years in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., for conspiracy to defeat the draft law with the aid of Emma Goldman.

District Attorney Charles M. Fickert said efforts would be made to bring Berkman here for trial before the expiration of his sentence.

SQUIRE JONES' COURT

John Frank, charged with assault on his wife, Tressa Frank, plead not guilty and was bound over to probate court; bond, $100.

CROWN PRINCE IN INTERVIEWS WITH DEPUTIES

This news should be interpreted in connection with intimations that the German government has decided to refuse to parliamentarize the cabinet and difficulties reported in connection with the adoption of a peace resolution.

According to a dispatch from Berlin to the Berlingske Tidende, the new peace formula put forward by the Liberals is being supported by a great part of the Centrist party. All parties have summoned their members to Berlin as soon as possible.

The Wolf News Bureau of Germany circulates without accepting the responsibility for it, a statement by the Tagesschau Rundschau that the resignation of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, has been accepted.

By means of a skilful play on words Theodor Wolf intimates in the Tagesschau of Berlin that the crown prince is supporting the movement to unseat Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg. In case of the chancellor's retirement, he writes, the activity of crown prince would be interpreted in a manner not calculated to increase the chances of peace.

WALLACE D. YAPLE

MEMBER OF STATE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION, DIED TODAY AT CHILLICOTHE HOME.

Had Served Five Terms as Mayor of Native City and Was Widely Known Over State.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, O., July 14.—Wallace D. Yaple, 47 years old, member of the state industrial commission, died at his residence here early this morning from illness that started last fall, the result of a burst blood vessel in his eye.

Mr. Yaple lived most of his life in Chillicothe, where he was five terms mayor of the city. When the state board of awards was created under the Harmon administration, he was appointed as one of the three members. Upon reorganization of the board as state industrial commission he was renamed by Governor Cox.

During the period he was a member of the commission, Mr. Yaple was a very close student of the workmen's compensation act and was recognized as an authority on the law governing that new function of state government. His incessant labor for successful operation of the industrial commission largely was responsible for a recent breakdown.

He is survived by Mrs. Yaple, who was Miss Ada Blankenship of Chillicothe. They never had any children. A cousin, Luther Yaple, lawyer and farmer, lives at Chillicothe. The funeral will be held from the residence Monday morning, and burial is expected to be at Chillicothe, though that has not definitely been determined.

LECTURES GIVEN BY FORMER PASTORS OF CENTRAL CHURCH

Rev. Miner L. Bates, president of Hiram College, former pastor of Newark, will lecture at Taylor Hall, Y. M. C. A. building, Monday evening, July 16, on "Moral and Social Integration." This is the first of a series of four lectures given by former pastors of the Central Church of Christ, under the auspices of the ushers' association.

On July 30, Rev. J. N. Scholes of Johnstown, Pa., will speak here. On August 13, Rev. W. D. Ward will address a Newark audience, and on August 27, Rev. H. N. Miller of Bethany, W. Va., will deliver a lecture here.

CLASH BETWEEN MINE WORKERS

Flat River, Mo., July 14.—Armed men patrolled the streets today following rioting last night between American and foreign mine-workers in which more than a score of foreigners were injured by being stoned or beaten. Merchants were told that American workmen would hold a mass meeting today and were warned to keep off the streets.

This city was quiet, although the authorities fear that further trouble will result should the two factions come together.

CONFERENCE OF BOYS AND GIRLS

Newark city and townships Sunday schools will hold the first meeting of the fiscal year in the Central Church of Christ, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All Sunday school workers are invited.

This meeting is especially for the boys and girls of the "teen" age. Parents will do well if they honor the boys and girls with their presence. Rev. H. T. Bay, Hanover, O.; Mrs. Kirk, Hebron, O.; Miss Wygant, Pataskala, O., will address the meeting. Boys and girls who attended state convention at Marion will give reports.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.
The regular meeting of the Frances Willard W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Simpson, Linden avenue.

Atkinson, the subject being: "The Sabbath Observance," and included the following: "Sabbath Desecration," a paper read by Mrs. Warton; "Keeping the Sabbath Day at Farmer Dawson," by Mrs. Farnery; "Keeping the Sabbath Holy," was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. Dick. Some interesting discussions were given by Mrs. Simpson and the leader, Mrs. Atkinson, which brought the program to a conclusion.

Readers' Viewpoint

I noticed in your most valuable paper some time ago a neat annual and well-kept report of the City hospital pertaining to expenses and disbursements for the past year. Much credit is due the secretary for the neat manner in which her books were kept. The many taxpayers would be considerably enlightened if they could see printed semi-annual or annual reports itemized of the children's home and the county infirmary, or Cedar Hill cemetery. The people of Newark and Licking county have been in the dark for years in not seeing annual reports made of county and city institutions.

COCCHI CANNOT BE EXTRADITED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Rome, July 14.—The minister of foreign affairs yesterday notified the American embassy that it was impossible to extradite Alfredo Cocchi, the slayer of Ruth Cruger, without violating the fundamental law of the country.

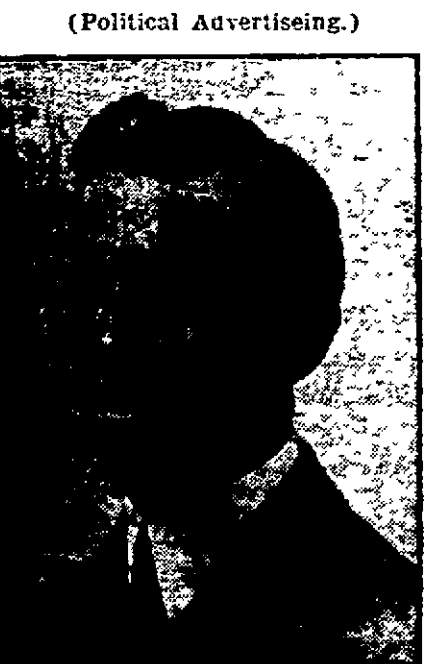

Peter A. Jay, charge d'affaires, during the absence of Ambassador Page, called at the foreign office and was told that the ministry regretted it was unable to satisfy the desire of the United States to have Cocchi sent back, especially now in view of the relations of Italy and America.

Although the original questions asked by Joseph H. Grigg, representing Police Commissioner Wood of New York, has as yet been unanswered, new questions have been submitted to the Italian government through the American embassy. These deal chiefly with Cocchi's reported connivance with the New York police.
